KEPT A SECRET FROM CREDITORS

A. P. WALKER ALLEGES in Suit Today Farmers Trust Co. Agreement Was Unknown to Some.

ASKS NOTES BE CANCELLED

Paper in Question Was For $3,000, and Was Executed to Claude Walker, Complaint Says.

Alleging that certain transactions involving the financial difficulties and subsequent settlement with the creditors of Alpheus P. Walker were kept from the other creditors by the Farmers Trust Company, Walker today filed suit against the Farmers Trust Company of this city and Claude Walker, asking that three notes, each for $1,000, be cancelled. The legal entanglement between Walker and the Farmers Trust company have been many and this latest suit deals with three notes that Walker executed to Claude Walker about March 1, 1914. According to the complaint, the notes were for $1,000 each and were to fall due in one, two and three years and bearing six percent interest. The notes were payable at the Farmers Trust Company.

It is alleged in the complaint that Claude Walker afterwards endorsed the notes to the trust company and that they are now held there as collateral. The complaint avers that previous to the filing of the suit he had demanded the surrender of the notes, but the Trust company refuses to give them to him even for inspection. The complaint is in two paragraphs, and in the first Walker asks that the defendant be required to deliver the notes to the plaintiff and that the trust company be enjoined and restrained from transferring or assigning the notes.

In the second paragraph Walker tells of his settlement with his various creditors at the rate of seventy cents on the dollar after a receiver had been appointed by the court to take charge of his estate. He sets out that before the Farmers Trust company would sign the agreement he was compelled to enter into a separate contract with them in which he paid the trust company $500 in cash and assigned seventeen shares of stock in the Rushville Glove company, at a market value of $2,000 and was compelled and did turn over to the defendant trust company a certain chattel mortgage and notes secured by the mortgage to the value of $1,000.

In the complaint, Walker states that this was all kept secret from the other creditors and was a fraud on the plaintiff and his other creditors. The contract entered between Walker and the trust company in the settlement is made a part of the complaint.

AMMENDMENTS OFFERED

Washington, Feb. 2.—Ship purchase bill amendments limiting to six months the length of time the government may lease a ship to a private corporation, empowering the government to put minimum rates under the lease and invalidating the lease itself if the terms are violated were introduced in the upper house this afternoon by Senator LaFollette. It was reported they represented the agreement between the president and the independent Republicans with whom he conferred this morning. Without taking up the ship purchase bill at all the senate adjourned until twelve o'clock Wednesday immediately after routine business was transacted. There was no objection from either side.

MAUZY IS NOW OFF MAP

Little Town East of Here Ceases to Exist as Station.

The little town of Mauzy, six miles east of this city, ceased to exist today, according to information given out by the C. H. & D. railroad, and the C. H. & D. office fixtures were removed. From a business viewpoint the office was a failure, and with the recent installation of the block service, an operator was not needed. About two years ago the State Public Service commission changed the name of the town from Griffin to Mauzy.

WILL FIX DATES AT NEXT MEETING

County Board of Education Will Select Time for Holding Eighth Year Examinations

SHORT MEETING YESTERDAY

At the next meeting of the county board of education the township trustees will decide on the dates for holding the eighth year examinations. This was decided upon yesterday at the regular meeting. The state board of education specifies the time for holding the eighth year examinations and gives the trustees the right to hold these examinations on three dates, the third Saturday either in March, April or May.

Schools with seven months' term will likely hold the examinations on the third Saturday in April so as to give those a chance that receive a condition to take another examination. All pupils receiving a condition in not more than two subjects are given a chance to pass at a second examination and this one will likely be held the third Saturday in May.

The township trustees again discussed the question of obtaining commissions for their schools.

DR. D. IRA LAMBERT FAVORS PROJECT

ESPECIALLY IN CINCINNATI

The campaign to retain Miss Mary Moore here as visiting nurse, which is being waged by the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, was reported to be going in fine shape today. The campaign will be continued throughout the week and a meeting of the canvassers will be held tomorrow evening at Dr. W. S. Coleman's office. Dr. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who was not in touch with the situation because he was out of the city last week, today made a statement declaring himself in favor of the project.

"I wish to make use of the courtesy of the daily press," he said, "to express my most hearty commendation of the work. It has been my privilege to be closely connected and carefully to observe this important work in Cincinnati and to realize that it is one of the most fruitful sources of good which can be rendered a community. By all means let this splendid work be maintained and it will tell in the health and morals of Rushville and this region for all the years to come."

HOME FROM A SPEAKING TOUR

James E. Watson Due Here Today After Addresses at Topeka and Before Chicago Club.

LISTS G. O. P. CANDIDATES

Expresses Opinion in Chicago That Tariff Will be Paramount Issue in 1916 Campaign.

James E. Watson was expected home today from Chicago where he addressed last night the Hamilton Club, the largest Republican club in Chicago. Since he left home last Thursday Mr. Watson has been to Topeka, Kansas. He spoke at Topeka last Friday at the occasion of the fifty-fourth anniversary of the entrance of Kansas into the union and the commemoration of William McKinley's birthday. In the fifty-four years that Kansas has celebrated the event, Mr. Watson is the only man to be asked to return.

A Chicago dispatch to The Indianapolis Star this morning credited Mr. Watson with listing twelve men in the race for the Republican nomination for president, and with the assertion that the tariff question would be the paramount one in the 1916 campaign. The men he placed in the race were:

James R. Mann of Illinois, L. Y. Sherman of Illinois, C. W. Fairbanks of Indiana, Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, Newton Harding of Ohio, T. E. Burton of Ohio, F. B. Willis of Ohio, J. W. Weeks of Massachusetts, C. S. Whitman of New York, W. A. Smith of Michigan, W. E. Borah of Idaho and W. E. McKinley of Illinois.

"It is too early to make a definite forecast," the Chicago dispatch says Mr. Watson declared just before the address at the Hamilton Club. "The most ardent Progressive admits that the time has come to do the courageous thing, admit defeat and return to the Republican ranks. Their work has been accomplished. The bolt of the Progressive has clarified the political atmosphere but now is the time to forget it."

"There is a host of men qualified to carry the standard in 1916. I understand you have three in Illinois who are in a receptive mood. I know little of Mr. Sherman or McKinley, but I do know something about James R. Mann. He is one of the greatest parliamentarians I have ever known. He is a born leader. Coupled with his qualifications for public service is rare industry and a capacity for big work. He is always equipped for every debate and would make an excellent man to lead the next fight."

"Until sixty days ago Mr. Fairbanks had not considered the possibility of making the race. I understand now, however, he has agents in the field feeling the public pulse. His qualifications are so well known that I will not dwell upon them."

"Whitman of New York is a candidate and there is a movement on foot to launch his candidacy. I understand, at the big Republican rally at Albany on Feb. 12."

"Weeks of Massachusetts is perhaps the strongest man in the East. All New England seems to be rallying to his standard. Herrick of Ohio is leading a field of candidates. William Alden Smith of Michigan is laying his wires and Senator Borah of Idaho is gaining strength in the West."

Mr. Watson refused to commit himself to the candidacy of any one man. He said that the Republican party in Kansas is enthusiastic over the new outlook and that Indiana is falling in line.

WINS FIGHT ON FLOOR OF HOUSE

Representative Jinnett Succeeds in Having Hog Cholera Serum Bill Recommitted

WANTS NO MISCONSTRUCTION

Fears Measure Might Prevent Farmers From Vaccinating Own Hogs—Against Monopoly

Representative W. R. Jinnett of this county made such a valiant fight in the lower house of the legislature in Indianapolis the other day against certain features of the hog cholera serum bill that he succeeded in getting the measure recommitted to the committee for the purpose of adding an amendment suggested by William C. Deck, of Martinsville, a farmer who represents Morgan county in the legislature.

The amendment was to the effect that nothing in the bill should be construed as to preventing farmers from buying and using serum. Representative Jinnett declared that he was in favor of throwing all safeguards possible about the manufacture and sale of hog cholera serum, but that he is opposed to monopoly and on the floor of the house showed himself perfectly able to take care of himself on any proposition on which he may stand.

The hog cholera serum bill provides that all hog cholera serum sold in Indiana shall first have been tested at Purdue university and shall have the seal of approval of that institution. Representative Jinnett thought this might tend to create a monopoly on the hog cholera serum business in Indiana and wanted the bill to stipulate plainly that there was nothing in the bill which would prevent farmers from vaccinating their own hogs if they cared to.

During the lively tilt on the floor of the house, the impression was made on a few members of the house that Jinnett was opposed to Purdue university. He declared, however, that such is not the case because he favors Purdue, but that he did not think Purdue should monopolize the sale of hog cholera serum.

When Jinnett finished his speech in which he succeeded in his purpose to get further consideration from the committee, personalities were indulged in between James Dummire, of Elkhart, representative from Elkhart county, and Maurice Douglas, of Ellettsburg, the representative from Shelby county.

Representative Jinnett declared himself to be for the farmers who composed the largest part of that class of people who pay taxes to keep up all the institutions of the state. The reason why Jinnett stood for the privilege of the farmers to treat their own hogs is that it is difficult to tell the difference between the hog cholera and the swine plague without a bacteriological examination. No veterinary surgeon is accustomed to make such examinations, therefore the farmer should be privileged to treat his own hogs if he wishes to do so, Jinnett declared.

WALL COLLAPSES; 7 KILLED.

(By United Press.)

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 2.—The north wall of the ruins of the Brown & Sehler Harness factory weakened by a fierce wind storm suddenly crashed to the ground today burying a score of workers beneath the debris. Seven men were killed outright and six others badly injured, one of whom may die.

A motion to relax the costs has been filed by Carlton Chaney in his case against Dr. Hugh H. Elliott and Dr. John T. Paxton in the Shelby circuit court.

NEW WITNESSES HEARD

Supplementary Evidence in Terre Haute Investigation Taken.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2.—The federal grand jury today heard new witnesses in the probe of Terre Haute election in which 126 indictments have been returned. The impression prevails that the evidence is supplementary to that which has already been taken. The end of the investigation left the impression that the Indianapolis probe was going on. Many Indianapolis witnesses were heard today.

ALL OHIO FACES FLOOD DANGER

River Men Today Forecast Most Serious One in Years With Ohio

Rising Foot an Hour

SCORES FAMILIES ISOLATED

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., Feb. 2.—Practically the entire state of Ohio faced flood dangers today.

Reports from every stream showed that rising waters that sent residents of lowlands fleeing to higher ground had isolated scores of families in one place and caused the most serious apprehension since the disastrous flood of March, 1913. Heavy thaws and rains of the last sixty hours were the cause.

The Ohio river was jumping to the flood stage early today at the rate of over a foot an hour. The greatest apprehension was felt in the section between Pittsburg and Cincinnati. Forecasts for this section say that by tomorrow morning a forty-five foot stage will have been reached, inundating a large area and driving 40,000 families from their homes. River men predicted the most serious flood in years. Wheeling, W. Va., Bellaire, Bridgeport, and Martins Ferry, Ohio and many other towns and cities are affected.

BELIEVES LAW WILL STAND TEST

Ralston Does Not Doubt Constitutionality of Anti-Lobby Bill Which Some Question.

ACTION OF THE LEGISLATURE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2.—Governor Ralston declared today that he had no doubt about the constitutionality of the anti-lobby bill which has been questioned by eminent corporation attorneys. The bill was expected to reach the governor's desk today.

Those who say the bill is unconstitutional say that it abridges the right of petition.

Over the protest of senators from river counties the senate today by a vote of 27 to 19 passed the Lanz bill creating a closed season in May and June for mussel fishing. Opposition to the bill from the button industry makes passage in the house doubtful. The bill is designed to protect fish.

The senate passed the Wood bill to compel county surveyors to turn over unfinished work to their successors and the Ballou bill permitting reasonable delays in guardians' reports.

ONE-HALF WOULD GO TO CHARITY

IDEA ORIGINAL IN INDIANA

Supt. Greathouse Would Have School Children Contribute to Red Cross Society.

Celebration of Lincoln's birthday, which is one week from next Friday, in the schools of Indiana by contributions to the American Red Cross Society is proposed by Charles A. Greathouse in a circular letter sent out yesterday and one of which was received this morning by C. M. George, county superintendent.

The state superintendent is hopeful that Indiana will come forward with a splendid sum. He suggests that children not only contribute their own pennies, in whatever measure they feel able to do so, but that teachers assist by arranging for public entertainments, the proceeds of which might be added to the contribution of any given room or school.

The proposal will be submitted to every school in Rush county and it will be up to the teachers whether the day is observed as requested by the state superintendent. The idea is entirely original with Indiana, it is said, and in case it is a pronounced success here, it is likely other states will adopt it. Superintendent Greathouse says it has not been the policy of his administration to seek donations from the public schools for any cause, no matter how meritorious it appeared. Continuing his letter says:

"But a call has come to us, through the Governor of Indiana, from an organization whose splendid philanthropic work has reached to every quarter of the globe; an organization that has served the needy and suffering in periods of great international strife and has proved, at all times, a blessing to mankind. This organization—the Society of the Red Cross—is asking the public schools to aid, financially, in relieving the distress of millions of children whose homes are devastated and whose schools are closed through the ravages of war. Surely no appeal could be made in the interests of a holier cause, and for it, we urge your earnest co-operation and enthusiastic support."

"February 12, 1915, the day on which this contribution is to be made, is the anniversary of the birth of a great statesman and leader."

Opportunity's Knock

When the national manufacturer advertises his product in this newspaper, opportunity knocks at the door of every retailer who carries the goods.

The manufacturers' advertising creates a definite demand. It inspires people with a desire to see the goods. These people will be attracted to the store that shows them.

They will be consumers not only for the manufacturer's goods but also customers for the storekeeper's goods.

The modern storekeeper is alert to take advantage of the manufacturer's newspaper advertising.

In the slang of the day, "He boosts when opportunity knocks."

Read This Letter:
 "Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect. Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

PECULIAR AFTER EFFECTS OF GRIP THIS YEAR

Leaves Kidneys in Weakened Condition

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50 cents and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper. (Advertisement.)

IS POPULAR JUST THE SAME

(By United Press.)
 Washington, Feb. 2.—Did you ever watch the actions today of Mr. Arcetomys Monax? Everybody was doing it.

Arcetomys Monax being scientific name for ground hog, today was "Ground Hog" day, the popular weather arbiter for the next six weeks. Whether Mr. G. Hog saw his shadow today and goes into hibernation for six weeks more of nasty winter weather was the question—except at the U. S. Weather Bureau. "Stuff and nonsense" was how a Weather Bureau official today indignantly discussed the effect upon the weather if old Arcetomys Monax saw his shadow.

"We don't take any stock in that here" the government weather forecaster declared. Admission that there really is such an animal or a ground hog, or woodchuck, was as far as the scientific chaps would go.

Rheumatism In Ankles

One Bottle of Rheuma Relieved Woman Who Could Not Walk

Marvelous as this story may seem it is absolutely true; but this is only one of the many almost magical cures that Rheuma is performing these days. Use of one bottle will convince any sufferer.

Mrs. Gertrude Koel, Smithfield, Pa., writes: "I had rheumatism for over a year; it settled in my ankles and I could not walk. I have taken one bottle of Rheuma and do not have any more pain, and I can again walk at will."

Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists sell Rheuma for 50 cents. It is guaranteed to cure any case of any kind of rheumatism or money back.

Gratifying relief comes in a day, because Rheuma acts at one time on the kidneys, stomach, liver and blood and starts to rid the entire system of poisonous uric acid at once. (Advertisement.)

Abraham Lincoln, whose unselfish devotion to right and whose broad human sympathy made him the idol of a nation.

"This war relief fund, to be known as the Lincoln fund, has been started by the state department of public instruction with a contribution of $50, and we are asking that an amount of one penny, or more, if the donor cares to enlarge it be contributed by each child in the schools of Indiana. A receipt for the full amount from each school will be returned to it, and can be preserved as a souvenir of the sympathy and generosity of children in one land toward those in another. The names of the school and amounts contributed will be published in the papers of the state.

"It is further suggested that, when feasible, this small donation be made a matter of effort or self-denial on the part of the school children, in that it represents a recompense for some individual work of theirs, or a sum that would otherwise have been expended for some individual pleasure. There are not many boys and girls who can not find an occasion for earning one or more pennies, and not many who may not easily deny themselves a penny's worth of pleasure that the money thus secured may aid the homeless suffering children across the sea.

"The lessons of unselfishness, sympathy, and kindness that will come from such a movement in the public schools will be far more effective than months of formal instruction in the abstract principles of these essentials of mind and heart.

"This appeal is made to the schools, then, not only because it comes from the Society of the Red Cross and has for its purpose the preservation of human life by administering to distressing needs, but because it will give to the children in our own land an opportunity to display such traits of character as are indispensable to the highest type of citizenship.

"This requests for contribution includes school officials, superintendents and teachers. It is a statewide appeal and is addressed not only to the public schools of Indiana, but to every educational institution in the state."

Financial Ghost Walks

Intelligences from Washington say the federal financial ghost is walking and that the president and his cabinet are beginning to show real concern about the condition of the government's finances. In spite of the "war-in-the-time-of-peace" direct tax, the treasury continues to act just like the proverbial dog's tail.

Economy is the watchword. But what is mystifying those in touch with the situation is that the president, in the face of the exasperating conditions, insists that the ship purchase bill be made a law, which in itself, would entail the expenditure of thirty millions of dollars.

For the six months and twenty-six days of the current fiscal year up to the close of business the disbursements of the government were $449,069,505, an excess of $87,855,282 over receipts. Last year expenditures for the same period were $436,614,234, but the receipts were more than $35,000,000 higher, leaving an excess of expenditures over receipts of only $39,667,833. That only one of the general appropriation bills has been passed and signed by the President—the urgent deficiency bill—is regarded as fortunate.

Congress, although it passed the Underwood tariff bill which contributed more than any other one cause to reduce the country's revenue, is not in tune with the administration's plan to prune. The postmaster general recommended that the rural mail service be placed on a contract basis and that the salaries of postmasters and their assistants be reduced. Congress objected to injuring the mail service, because it was manifestly poor economy, and not only refused to agree to these recommendations and voted for a continuance of present conditions in the mail service, but made additional appropriations that increased the postal expenditures more than nineteen million dollars above the estimates made by the postmaster general.

The falling off of revenue has been causing concern for weeks and the idea that sooner or later it would be necessary to call a halt on the way congress has been proposing to spend money has been the theme of many five-minute speeches on the floor of the house. The house has passed the postoffice, legislative, Indian, river and harbor and army bills, but they are yet to be acted on by the senate. It would be possible to prune any of these, and there is talk of killing the river and harbor bill outright. There is also talk of cutting down the naval program and the "little navy" men will make a desperate fight to that end.

Chairman Fitzgerald frankly admitted that great difficulty would be experienced in readjusting the money bills to fit amended estimates. He said it seemed altogether unlikely that anything like the $40,000,000 necessary to be saved in the annual budget could now be expunged.

It is expected that $54,000,000 will be received from the direct tax during the fiscal year. To date customs receipts have shown a loss of $56,000,000, but in recent weeks the losses have been less pronounced. Substantially all of the corporation and income tax is paid in June, and it is expected that between $80,000,000 and $90,000,000 will be received from this source.

It was said today that one plan that might be brought forward would be to lower the income tax exemption below $3,000. This, however, probably will not be seriously considered, except as a last resort.

In connection with the army bill, it is pointed out, approximately $2,500,000 for a new army transport, now carried in the bill, should be eliminated.

In Which He is an Adept.

Political observers who read the speech of William Dudley Foulke of Richmond at a Progressive meeting in Indianapolis last week predict that he is heading for the Republican party. However, he made some remarks which are not calculated to make him an honorary member of the Republican party. Mr. Foulke "orated" at some length on "national security being paramount to any other" and declared his intentions of voting "for that party which gives me the strongest assurance that our country shall be defended against aggression. If the Republican party is the only one which can supply such assurance, then I intend to hold my nose and vote for every unregenerate rascal whom it may nominate, if he is the only man that tells me my country shall be protected." In the business of holding one's nose, Mr. Foulke must be an adept, judging from past performances.

People's Column

In the Hands of a Receiver

The following from the Christian Standard has been sent in by a subscriber of the Daily Republican with the request that it be printed:

A system known as the "Hoster Breweries Company" founded in 1835 with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio and branches throughout the east, and capitalized at $12,000,000, passed into the hands of receivers December 23rd.

Here are the reasons assigned by the company for the failure, and it affords us extreme pleasure to copy them:

"In 1908 Ohio Legislature passed the Rose County option law, which took from us annually over eighty-one thousand barrels sales in

Ohio. 1909 the full effect of the Rose law was felt to the extent of reducing our sales in that year to about 274,000 barrels.

"In 1913 the new license law curtailed the number of saloons in Columbus 20 per cent, and in the state of Ohio, 33 per cent.

"In 1914 the crowning blow came when West Virginia was lost, where we did a business of nearly a half-holders.

When a shot knocks out such a company as this, may be well named a "center-shot" and a good, big one at that.

NOTES OF INTEREST TO INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

(BY L. W. HENLEY.)

The Logansport Republican Club is making plans to celebrate Lincoln's birthday. An effort will be made to secure Former Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois to make the principal speech.

The Republicans of Wayne county will enjoy a banquet in Richmond some time this winter, the date to be announced later.

According to Democratic plans Bryan and Kern are to address the Indiana legislature on Feb. 4. If an afternoon of the legislature's time is consumed by these noted Democrats it will cost the taxpayers of Indiana approximately $1,000. There are Democrats in Indiana who figure it would be cheaper to have the state "hire a hall" and pay Bryan his usual Chautauqua fee than to stage the performance in the legislative halls. And there are still other Democrats in the state who wonder, if in the face of the fact that the people of Indiana have heard these men orate on numerous occasions during the past twenty years whether, if any event, the coming attraction is worth the price.

A former Democratic state senator and the chairman of the St. Joseph county Progressive committee in the recent campaign were interested participants in a big Republican love feast held at South Bend recently.

Comparing the official returns of the 1914 election in Indiana with the result of the 1912 election, the Republican gains in the following counties were larger than the combined Progressive and Democratic losses: Bartholomew, Benton, Carroll, Clinton, Daviess, Decatur, Fountain, Fulton, Gibson, Greene, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Howard, Huntington, Jasper, Jefferson, Lagrange, Lake Lawrence, Madison, Miami, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Randolph, Ripley, Rush, Shelby, Spencer, Tipton, Union, Warren, Warrick, Wayne and White.

At the recent election the Republicans made a gain of more than 1,000 votes to a county in 16 counties and they made gains of over 500 votes in each of 36 other counties.

The Republicans polled a total of less than 1,000 votes in only nine counties in Indiana at the recent election. In 1912 they failed to reach this total in 26 counties.

The Democratic vote in Lagrange, Ohio, Switzerland, Dubois and Ripley counties appears to be rather stable. There was a difference of but three votes between the Democratic totals in Lagrange county in 1912 and 1914; the difference in Switzerland was but six votes; seven in Ohio; nine in Dubois; and ten in Ripley.

Central Delivery System

It is with pleasure that we, the undersigned merchants announce to our customers that we have contracted with the Benson Delivery Co., to establish a central delivery station in this city. We did this only after a thorough investigation in other cities where such systems are established. Wherever they are in operation, central delivery systems are meeting the approval of both merchants and patrons.

Central Delivery Starts Mon. February 15 ...What It Does....

CENTRAL DELIVERY enables the merchant to organize his working force and confine all his attention within the store, without worry about getting orders out on time, for the delivery is in charge of a responsible man, who will see that goods go out on schedule time. CENTRAL DELIVERY in no way prevents competition, as every merchant fixes his own prices.

CENTRAL DELIVERY will benefit customers, as they can place their orders and know just at what hour to expect the delivery wagon, by referring to their schedule.

With co-operation between merchants and customers, the new system will be a pleasure and a satisfaction to all concerned and we feel that we have solved a problem, that in the past, has required too much of the merchant's time that should have been devoted to matters within the store.

The new Central Station, under the management of E. E. Benson, is located at Morgan and Water streets in a new sanitary building, built especially for this purpose, and you are invited there at any time to see the careful handling of orders.

For an eleven o'clock dinner or merchandise wanted early, place your order in time for the eight o'clock delivery.

With your co-operation in the new system, we expect Rushville to have the best delivery service that has ever been given.

These merchants will deliver your goods on time:—

HOW TO SELL THINGS THAT ARE "FOR SALE"

Write your "For Sale" ad SIMPLY stating every detail about the article that you would want an ad to give if you were anxious to buy something of the kind yourself. Give a little thought to the "selling points" about the article, and put THEM into your ad. Then run the ad MORE THAN ONCE, if that is necessary. It may or may not be.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp—At Once

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

Notice of Administration

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the Judge of the Circuit Court of Rush County, State of Indiana, administrator, with will annexed, of the estate of Nannie E. Osborne, late of Rush County, deceased.

DONOVAN LAYS DOWN NEW RULE

New Manager of Yankees Says Outfielders Must Know How to Handle Ground Balls

AS WELL AS THE ELUSIVE FLY

Bob Shawkey Just Learns That he Broke in World's Series—Two Bones Fractured

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York Feb. 2.—Candidates for outfield berths on the rejuvenated Yankees this season will have to prove themselves as adept at handling ground balls as they are snaring the elusive fly before they can be sure of their jobs.

This is the latest ultimatum laid down by Manager Bill Donovan and only one of the several innovations. Wild William is planning to introduce in the hope that the Highlander can be kicked back in the elite section of Ban Johnson's loop.

"Many is the game," soliloquized Bill recently, "I have lost myself and seen other pitchers lose through some gnat-headed outfielder kicking a ground ball clear to the fence."

In directing his gardeners toward this end, Wild William will be aided by Joe Kelley, one time famous outfielder on the Baltimore Orioles, and now chief ivory huner for the Yankees.

"We used to do it the old days," said Joe, the other day "and I can't see why we can't do it now. Many is the time I have seen Hughey Jennings, McGraw and many other old stars work for hours at a stretch learning the hop of a ball over a certain bit of ground. An infielder isn't considered much of a man if he isn't a good judge of a fly ball—then why shouldn't the outer defense be just as good judge of a ground ball?"

Bob Shawkey just learned recently that he broke his hand in the world's series last October. The hand had been troubling him for his right flipper was badly cracked, doctor examine it. The examination some time and not long ago he had a showed that the two small bones in Shawkey lays the blame onto Rabbit Maranville. He remembers, he said after stopping a sissler off the Rabbit's bat, that his hand pained him. The M. D. fixed it up and promised Bob that he would be as good as ever next season.

TWO SONS OF PETER THE GREAT COMING

WILL RACE THEM THIS YEAR

Dick Wilson has leased from the Patchen Wilks stock farm of Lexington, Ky., "Peter Pearl," a four-year-old stallion, with a race record of 2:09½, and "Peter The Gay," a two-year-old stallion with a record of 2:10½. These horses are very high class trotters, and barring accidents, will get records of 2:05 or better this year, it is believed. "Peter The Gay" is the only horse to make a season in Indiana with a two-year-old record as fast as 2:10½. "Peter The Great," 2:07½, their sire, is conceded by all horsemen to be one of the greatest horses living or dead, having had forty-five to enter the list last year. "Peter The Great" is the sire of "Peter Volo," 2:03½, the champion three-year-old trotter of the world, winner of the Kentucky Futurity and all of the stake races in which he started. The horses are not only high class trotters, but they are royally bred and are good individuals. After the season, Dick Wilson will race them.

STOCK COMPANY NOW ASSURED

Meeting Will be Held Sunday at Which Time Organization Will be Formed For Club.

FANS BELIEVE IT WILL GO

Efforts Will be Made to Give City Best Team it Ever Had—Davison to be Present.

A movement which has been under way for several weeks to reorganize the Rushville baseball club by forming a stock company will be brought to a definite form Sunday afternoon when a meeting will be held in the assembly room of the court house for the purpose of forming an organization. The meeting is scheduled for two o'clock.

The idea of a stock company is not a new one to the fans interested in the success of the game and it is expected that a large crowd will attend the meeting as the plan will be made plain and it is hoped to have the organization well enough advanced to go ahead with the plans for the coming season.

It is generally conceded that the stock company plan is the only safe one by which the team can be operated and it has found many supporters already. With the baseball season less than three months distant it is figured that now is the time to make the necessary arrangements.

An effort will be made to secure one hundred stock holders or more as the success of the movement depends on the number interested. It is believed under this plan with every one interested in the success of the team that Rushville can be given the best ball team it has ever had and with a schedule arranged with the teams of other nearby cities the year would be the best ever had here. Under the old way of operating the club one man was the manager and the whole works but within a stock company one stock holder would have as much at stake as the other and all would pull for the best interests of the team.

Papers were being circulated today in an effort to see how many fans would take hold of the movement. At the meeting Sunday plans for the year will be discussed and the organization will be more fully explained. If enough signers for stock are secured it may be possible to form the organization with the board of directors, president and secretary. If this is done work will be started soon on putting the ball park in shape. It is planned to erect a modern grand stand.

Big Ed Davidson, manager of last years team will be present Sunday and from all indications the meeting will be a success. The meeting is open to the public and all that are interested in the success of the team are being urged to attend.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

PIG CLUBS TO BE ORGANIZED

Purdue University Experiment Station Will Instruct Hoosier Boys Along New Line.

METHOD PROVED HELPFUL

Will Teach Through Youths a Better and Larger Swine Industry For The State.

Purdue leaflet No. 56, just issued from the extension department of Purdue University, is the announcement of a new club project in Indiana that promises to do much for the interests of animal husbandry. The club for boys and girls has proved a very effective means of getting results.

It deals with a class between the ages of 10 and 18 who are learners and therefore, better inclined towards instruction than the farmer who has been out of school too long to learn new ways. To be sure the Indiana farmer is proving daily that he can learn new methods and apply them, but often he has learned from his boy who became a member of a boys club.

The new club project now undertaken with the co-operation of the bureau of animal industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is to organize pig clubs and teach through them a better and larger swine industry for the state. Leaflet No. 56 is the work of F. M. Shanklin, recently appointed assistant in pig club work and shows why the pig has been selected for club work.

The pig clubs and corn clubs will not be rivals but should enroll as far as possible the same boys. In this way the corn will be used as part of the feed for the pig. One purpose to be served by the pig club is to convince the boy that corn alone should not be fed especially to growing pigs. More money will be made and larger as well as cheaper gains will result if a proper supplement to the corn is found and a more balanced ration obtained.

The use of forage crops also is emphasized and the boys will be shown the extravagance of dry lot feeding. Proper housing and the need of sanitation will help in the fight against hog cholera. These and other lines will be undertaken by the pig clubs, all of which are outlined in this leaflet. Copies of this as well as other bulletins may be had by application.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not so awful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

LOAN BUSINESS FOR WOMEN ONLY

May Become Reality Soon in New York Instead of Idle Dream of Some Theorist

INTERESTS SOCIAL WORKERS

Unemployed Situation Has Opened Eyes of Many and City May Take Hold of Proposition

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK
New York, Feb. 2—Municipal loan business exclusively for women may become a reality in New York instead of the idle dream of some theorist before another period of "social and industrial unrest" rolls around.

The unemployed situation opened the eyes of people interested in social work as to what could be accomplished by means of such bureaus. The unemployed situation also opened the public's eyes to the fact that unless something was done, some drastic action taken, immorality was going to increase by leaps and bounds by the time another such period came around.

In the investigation of Samuel A. Stodel, assigned by the Public Forum to enumerate the unemployed in New York City, he reported that there were 125,000 women in New York who were out of work and facing the alternative of starving or being driven to immorality.

Particularly on the lower East Side with its teeming thousands of laboring people was this state of affairs found to be existing, he said. Most of the girls were factory employees, garment workers and such, who under normal conditions received a wage that enables them only to exist. A great many of these were of foreign birth or extraction, although many were found, he said, who under normal conditions were classed as "hardworking, respectable American working girls."

"Unemployed women can hardly be dealt with in the same manner we can deal with jobless men," said Stodel. "Work can, with some effort be created for men. You can take a gang of men out and put 'em to work on some public improvement such as street work, sewer construction or the thousand and one other forms of manual labor."

"But when it comes to women, then your sociological experts and economist are stumped. Women certainly cannot be put to work constructing streets and sewers."

"There is an easier way for them to make a living. And they'll do it, those that don't commit suicide, before they'll starve to death."

"So, after an investigation extending over a period of three weeks the only way I can see to deal with the problem is for the city to establish a loan bureau which will advance sums of money to women out of work until they are able to get jobs."

"An empty stomach knows no conscience, but a full one does. Experiments carried on in other cities in the United States have proven conclusively that loan bureaus of a similar type are successful from the standpoint of the creditors paying back the loans."

"A rate of interest could be charged if deemed advisable, say enough to make the institution self supporting. Of course, it necessarily could not be great, nor should it be, for the city would profit enough should it rid itself of the problem of caring for these women."

"I have found that in most cases immorality and prostitution are the result of poverty, sometimes one sharp pinch causes it and again it may be prolonged. The number of scarlet women who choose the life voluntarily are extremely few. Once down, they scarcely ever get up, they're a social burden and a drag on clean government."

"Society can prevent a lot of its burdens if it will. These women can be made into social units—of benefit to the world, if society will but make the effort. And certainly the establishment of such bureaus as I have suggested looks to be the most rational and the easiest way

CONFERENCES TO BE HELD FREE

Dental and Medical Societies Take Interest in Child Welfare Exposition For Indianapolis.

WILL BE HELD IN FEBRUARY

No Medicine Will be Administered But Careful Examinations of Children Will be Made.

Dental and medical societies in Indianapolis are setting an interesting precedent for the rest of the state in connection with the State Child Welfare Exposition to be held in the capital for ten days beginning February 16th.

For the benefit of the thousands of parents who accompany their children to the exposition, the two societies will maintain in constant operation, free medical and dental conferences for boys and girls.

No medicine will be administered at these conferences but the experts in charge will make careful examinations for tuberculosis, enlarged tonsils, adenoids, decayed teeth, defective eyesight, impaired hearing and other childhood troubles.

"An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure" will be the motto and the parents will be advised by the experts concerning the steps to be taken in each case. Since the treatment itself will not be given in these free clinics, the parents will be advised to consult their "family" physician or dentist at an early date, where it is found that the immediate application of a remedy is needed.

The exposition, however, will not deal altogether with health problems. The reaction department is arranging an interesting section of the exhibit which will be devoted to the development of the playground idea. The adage "All Work and No Play Makes Jack a Dull Boy" hangs in a conspicuous place in the rooms occupied by the committee. With this in mind, the committee is planning a number of folk dances, drills, games and other interesting phases of well balanced child life.

In this connection the state organization of Boy Scouts will constantly maintain a camp fire with hourly demonstrations of the various phases of Boy Scout life, both rural and urban. The Camp Fire Girls from over the state will be included in the reaction section and will present interesting drills and exercises.

HOW TO MAKE THE CHEAPEST AND BEST COUGH REMEDY AT HOME

Most persons neglect a cough or cold for the principal reason that they either don't think it serious enough to go to a doctor, or don't know what good medicine to buy at a drug store, with the result that the cough or cold becomes deep-seated through this neglect and hangs on the whole winter—which might have otherwise been speedily cured, had Schiffmann's Concentrated Expectorant been used promptly.

This new remedy is so strongly concentrated that two ounces (50 cents' worth) make a full pint (16 ozs.) of excellent cough medicine, by simply mixing it at home with one pint of granulated sugar and ½ pint of water. It makes a whole family supply, as much as would ordinarily cost from $2.00 to $3.00 for the same quantity of the old, ordinary, ready-made kinds of doubtful merit. It is prepared from strictly harmless plants and is so pleasant that children like to take it and it can be given them with perfect safety as it positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine, or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. It is altogether different from any other cough remedy. No risk whatever is run in buying this remedy as the druggist named below will refund money if it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the very best remedy you have ever used for stubborn Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough and Hoarseness. In fact any druggist will sell this new remedy under the same guarantee. If your druggist will not keep it for you, order direct of R. J. Schiffmann, St. Paul, Minn. Guaranteed here by

The more people who know of a sale the larger the crowd, resulting in more competitive bidding, higher prices for the stuff and more dollars in the holder's pocket. The Daily Republican goes into every town, community and neighborhood in Rush County, and has more paid subscribers than all the rest of the Rushville papers combined. Right now everybody is looking for and reading sale notices. They want to buy. The Republican's "Public Sales" advertisements tell them who is having a sale, when and where. Sale bills will always be used but their number is decreasing. Newspaper advertising is found to reach more people and when they are in a mood to read, and is getting more popular all the time. IMPORTATIONS ARE LIMITED

Agriculture Department Says Havoc By Malady is Some Times Underestimated.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Because of the prevalence of foot-and-mouth disease in Europe and South America, importations of live stock are now limited practically to shipments from Great Britain, Ireland, and the Channel Isle. Even with these countries trade has been interrupted several times in recent years, for the Government does not permit the importation of animals from countries where the disease exists, and there have been several outbreaks in Great Britain lately.

Up to November, 1906, American ports were open to Belgium and Holland. In that month, however, some sheep were taken into Belgium from France where the disease was quite prevalent and brought the pestilence with them. By the end of the year every province in Belgium was affected, and Holland as well. Since that time both of these countries have been fighting the disease but have not yet succeeded in eradicating it.

In Italy, France, Switzerland, Germany, and Russia, the plague has existed so long and has gained such a foothold that it is economically impossible to fight it with the American methods of slaughter and disinfection, for to do so would be to kill a large percentage of the live stock in these countries. In consequence, the authorities appear to be making little or no progress in their campaign. The outbreak, for example, which appeared in Germany in 1888 increased steadily until 1892 when it diminished gradually for a few years but again reached great proportions in 1899. Thereafter it continued to exist to a greater or less extent until in 1911 it attained a virulence unequalled before. In that year 3,366,369 cattle, 1,602,927 sheep, 2,555,371 hogs, and 63,674 goats were affected. At that time the total number of cattle, sheep, swine, and goats in Germany was only 51,319,000, while there were in the United States, 172,572,000, or between three and four times as many. It can readily be imagined, therefore, what it would mean to the United States if the disease was to gain the foothold here that it had in Germany where, as these figures show, approximately one out of seven of the animals susceptible to the disease was affected.

Since the mortality in the disease is comparatively low, ranging from only 3 per cent in mild forms to 30 or 40 per cent in malignant cases, the havoc caused by the pestilence is sometimes underestimated. From the work of various scientists, however, who have endeavored to ascertain the decrease in value of an average this amounts in Germany to $7.00 and in Holland to $10.00. In this country with its higher prices, the loss is correspondingly greater. If these figures be accepted, it is obvious that the amount of money spent in eradicating the disease becomes insignificant in comparison with the loss it causes when left to itself.

The German Government, of course, has not left the disease to itself. The more recent outbreaks it attempted to control by the American method of slaughter, but the pestilence had gained too much head way and was too firmly established in too many portions of the country for this method to succeed, and the slaughter of the infected herds had to be abandoned. It now appears that there is no hope of getting rid of it until the virus has worn itself out. At present it seems that as soon as the animal's period of acquired immunity is over and favorable conditions present themselves, the contagion breaks out with renewed virulence so that the authorities have practically abandoned all hope of controlling it by means of quarantines. One scientist indeed has asserted that unless all the infected farms were absolutely isolated and the movement not only of live stock but of persons, absolutely prohibited, the disease could not be stamped out. Such a quarantine is, of course, utterly impossible to enforce.

FOUR BANKS IN RUSH COUNTY PAY $5,305

National Financial Institutions Send in Second Installment on Federal Reserve Stock.

THIRD PAYMENT IN 6 MONTHS

The four Rush county national banks, members of the Federal Reserve banks, sent a total of $5,305 as their second installment on their subscription to the bank's stock. This second installment was the same as the first made on November 2. The amounts each bank from this county paid are as follows: Peoples National bank, $1,250; Rush County National bank, $2,000; Rushville National bank, $1,750, and the First National Bank of Mays, $305.

The banks were compelled to subscribe six per centum of their capital and surplus to the capital of the reserve banks. One-sixth of this was payable on November 2, one-sixth on February 2, which payment was made today and one-sixth is payable in six months from now and the balance is subject to call.

TESTING SEED CORN SAVES CROP LOSSES

Little Extra Work During Dull Winter Days May Produce Big Results at Harvest Time.

SHOULD BE DONE IN TESTER

One of the most profitable occupations for the farmer at this time of the year, when outside work is difficult, is testing seed corn for next year's crop. A little time spent in this way may mean a big saving when the crop is harvested. The average seed ear contains about 800 grains, each of which should be capable of producing a stalk with at least one good ear on it. If a dead ear is allowed to get into the seed box the loss will be about 10 or 12 bushels at harvest.

The testing should be done in one of the many forms of testers. When moisture is applied at the normal growing temperature the grain will sprout in from five to six days. All ears that do not show a high percentage of germination should be discarded.

TO DISCUSS LEGISLATION.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—Proposed legislation will be discussed at a special meeting of the district chairmen of the Woman's Franchise League which will be held here tomorrow.

Hundreds of Women

nowadays are entering the professions or business world and go to work day after day in bad health afflicted with some female ailment, dragging one foot wearily after the other, working with an eye on the clock, and wishing for closing time to come.

Women in this condition should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. It has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy. Give it a trial.

CELEBRATE BY CONTRIBUTING

Senator Van Auken Proposes to Combine Indiana and Purdue in State Institution.

Bill Would Cause I. U. to Cease to Exist During Summer of 1916 —Protests From the Alumni.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—"The alumni of Indiana University shall be and are hereby made the alumni of Purdue University."

With that provision forming Section 4 of "a bill for an act to consolidate Indiana University and Purdue University and to provide for the government thereof," it was considered probable that even the anti-lobby law would be incompetent to cope with the lobby that would at once form against the proposal of Senator Van Auken.

As one Indiana alumnus expressed it today,

"Perish the thought: :&?/—!"

The bill goes to provide means by which Indiana University would cease to exist during the summer of 1916. The alumni of Indiana would, under the bill, celebrate their sudden change to Purdue alumni by electing on the Tuesday preceding the next annual commencement of a trustee to Purdue university. Other machinery for the election of trustees is provided.

Provision is made that no member of either faculty should be discharged, except for misconduct, until August 1, 1916.

The property and equipment located in Bloomington would as soon as practicable be moved to Purdue University at Lafayette, and regular instruction by "The University at Bloomington" would cease after July 1, 1916.

The bill has an emergency clause, which would place it into immediate effect after passage.

The attitude of the Purdue alumni was expressed by one of their number who was asked about the proposed blend of the Red and White with the Old Gold and Black.

"It would be fine," he said, "if they moved Indiana to Lafayette."

"How about moving Indiana to Lafayette and changing the name of Purdue to Indiana?" he was asked.

"Oh, not on your life! That would never do," he said.

Indiana alumni are known to feel much the same concerning the name of Indiana University to Purdue. No Provision is made in the bill for the colors of the new university.

Because of a bequest, the university at Lafayette must always be called Purdue, which may have influenced Van Auken in the selection of the name.

Van Auken said that the consolidation of the two schools would give Indiana more prestige in its higher educational system. This prestige, he said, would be equal to that now enjoyed by the University of Wisconsin or the University of Michigan.

Bitter rivalry springing largely from athletic relations has so engrossed the two institutions in Indiana for so long that it is considered doubtful whether either would look with favor on the prospect of losing its identity in the other.

NEW SYSTEM TO START FEB. 15

Central Delivery Will be in Force in Rushville One Week From Next Monday.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Merchants Believe They Have Solv-
ed Vexing Problem—Central Station Being Built.

Rushville will be treated to an innovation one week from next Monday when the Benson central delivery system gets under way here. The beginning of the consolidated delivery system will mark the passing of the delivery wagon in Rush-
ville because practically every store
in Rushville that has deliveries to make has made a contract with the Benson Delivery company.

The methods of the concern were announced today. All goods will be sent out on their routes from a central station which will be located just back of the Red Men's building
in First street. J. C. Clore is erecting the building there on his ground
and has leased it to the Benson Delivery company.

Delivery will be made at eight and
ten o'clock in the morning and at
two and four in the afternoon with an additional delivery at night on Saturday, which will start at nine o'clock. All goods will be collected from the stores and taken to the central station where they will be routed.

The new central station is to be a sanitary building, it is stated. The wagons will be backed into stalls
opening on a central platform where deliveries will be sorted and then loaded into the respective wagons.

It is urged by the Benson Delivery
company that when housewives
want for an eleven o'clock dinner or earlier for any other purpose, that they get their orders in for the eight o'clock morning delivery in order to be certain that they will receive their goods in time.

Many arguments are advanced in favor of the central delivery system. It is held that it enables merchants to center his attention on his store and organize his force of clerks thoroughly without having
the trouble of worry of getting out orders on time.

It is further stated that the central delivery system in no way prevents competition as every merchant
fixes his own prices. It also has been found to be a benefit to the customers because they can always refer to their schedule and be sure what hour to expect the delivery
wagon.

With perfect co-operation between merchants and their customers, E. E. Benson, the manager of the system here, feels that the innovation will be a "pleasure and a satisfaction to all concerned." It is stated that the merchants enter into the agreement with the feeling that they have solved the problem
which has taken entirely too much
of their time away from their work
in their respective stores.

The following grocers will deliver
through the system: L. L. Allen, A.
L. Aldridge, Charles Berry, Black &
Company, O. C. Brann & Sons,
Brown Brothers, H. G. Hackman,
Havens Brothers, Lon H. Havens & Company, Newhouse Brothers, John
Kelley, Jr. Other stores who will deliver through the Benson agency
are: Weeks Fresh Meat & Provision Company, D. M. Casady meat market, E. R. Casady dry goods
store, Bee Hive department store, J.
W. Hogsett dry goods store, Bliss &
Cowing clothing store, Knecht

hardware stores and other merchants who desire to accommodate their patrons by using the Benson

KERN OUT FOR STATE PRIMARY

United States Senator Writes Letter
to Author of Bill Now Before Indiana Legislature.

IT IS MADE PUBLIC TODAY

Still Another Measure Would Have
Question Submitted to People
For a Vote in 1916.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—The belief
that Senator John W. Kern may allow his influence to aid the Jones-Rinear state-wide direct primary
bill when he comes here with Secretary Bryan Thursday was strengthened today when Representative
John R. Jones (Dem.) author of the bill exhibited a letter from Kern in which the Indiana senator enlarged
on the benefits and feasibility of the state-wide primary. He did not mention the Jones bill but the "good points" that Kern mentioned as necessary to any satisfactory primary law are said to be contained in the Jones-Rinear bill.

Kern's letter follows:
"My opinion of the direct primary
is distinctly favorable. There are no vital defects in the direct primary system. Where the primary laws have been perfected by giving the elector the right to vote
for first and second choice and where machinery provided is not cumbersome, the direct primary has been the means of making government more responsible to popular needs.

"The direct primary has been the means of improving the character of men chosen to public office.

"The fact that nearly every state
in the union has adopted a primary system, that no serious effort has been made to get rid of it in any
state, and that as the laws are improved and the people educated in the use of such laws the system grows more and more popular, would seem to be very strong and convincing arguments in its favor.

"A primary law weak in construction, drafted in the spirit of distrust of the people, full of loop
holes, is much worse than none,
while on the other hand a measure
so drafted as to embody the useful features of the latest statutes on the subject giving to the people assurance that the popular will will be correctly registered and giving equally positive assurance to every man contemplating frauds and sharp
practice that he will surely wear stripes if the attempts to subvert or thwart the will, would be a long stride forward in the cause of popular government.

Signed "JOHN W. KERN."
Jones said that the bill introduced yesterday by Representative Osborn (Dem.) of Posey county, would be the kind of bill denounced by Senator Kern as "worse than none."
The Osborn bill, he said, would not be fulfilling the party pledge. It would, he said, be asking the people
to decide over again what they have already decided. He said when the Democratic state ticket was elected
and a Democratic majority was returned to the assembly on a platform coming out flat-footed for the direct primary, the people showed
that they favored such a primary.

"The Democrats have been for the direct primary and have promised it ever since William J. Bryan in 1896
said 'Let the People Rule.' If we do not give what we have promised the party will be discredited," he said.

The Osborn bill would have the direct primary question submitted to the people at the general election of 1916 for a majority vote. A majority for the primary would not place it into effect, but the vote
would be considered as advisory for
the 1917 legislature.

gree will be conferred on a number

son administration spell success for the Republicans," Mr. Watson continued.

"Some of the prize Wilson blunders were the passing of the Panama Canal toll bill, the vacillating
policy toward Mexico and the shipbuilding. Mr. Wilson has shown a complete inability to grasp the great
big questions upon which the prosperity of the nation rests. Think of building a $425,000,000 canal and fixing a charge for our own boats.

"Mr. Bryan, the Chautauqua star,
has shown his inability to cope with
the questions of international law.
The administration had to muzzle
him to keep him from plunging the country into war.

"One of the greatest needs of the hour is an adequate merchant marine. During the Harrison administration a ship subsidy bill was passed in the form of a postal subsidy.
This money is being used to maintain 100 boats on the Atlantic. We should amend this measure now to return
the money diverted to floating the present ships.

"We must also provide for an adequate army and navy. When the fleet was sent around the world other nations realized how weak it was.
Had war been declared at that time
our poor navy never would have gotten home.

"Something must be done to check
this modern movement to government ownership. There is no more reason for the government operating public utilities than there is for the owning and operating of the steel
mills or mines."

Mr. Watson was the central figure of a large gathering of Republicans
at the Hamilton Club at noon, the dispatch says. He was roundly cheered as he scored the administration and ridiculed what he termed President Wilson's "cheap play to
the Progressives" in ignoring the Republicans on the proposed trade commission.

BILL IS AIMED AT IMMORALITIES

Measure Introduced Today Would Make it Difficult For Couples
to Evade the Law.

HEAVY PENALTY IS IMPOSED

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—In a bill
aimed at immoral practices, Representative Sullivan T. Waite of Marion, a Republican, would make it
more difficult for couples to evade
the law. The bill was introduced today. It would prohibit those not legally man and wife from registering
thus in any hotel or rooming house.
The penalty provided is a fine for each party of not less than $10 nor more than $50 and imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed thirty days.

City and police courts have seldom returned convictions on adultery charges in cases where couples
have registered as man and wife.
As the law now is, the defendants
must have been seen together in the room. The penalty on conviction for adultery is a fine not to exceed $500
or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both.

WAR INCENTIVE TO PITTSBURGH

Air Because Steel Industry
Has Opened Up

SECRECY IN OPERATIONS

Most of Big Plants Run Full Time
Working on Orders From Europe
Crowds Disappear.

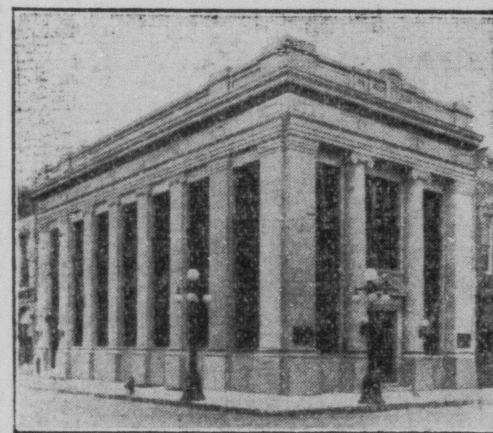

(By United Press.)
Pittsburgh, Feb. 2.—"Hard times" talk is rapidly being purged from the atmosphere of the Pittsburgh district. The European war has proven the incentive to increased industry and plants that were running on only part time and others that were not even doing that are operating today at full blast.

Steel is the commodity to which newborn boom owes its being and promises.

Secrecy essentially surrounds
most of the operations of the plants big and little, in this vicinity. But that the plants are running there can be no doubt. Nor that men are back at work. Two months ago there was not a bulletin board before any newspaper majority at which crowds could not be found, night and day. They were steel workers, the majority of them, and war and hard times were the two topics of discussion. Today a half dozen or a dozen is the usual extent of the gatherings.

That is, until night. Then there are larger crowds. They are dressed better, smoke better tobacco, chew
"tobies" (stogies) instead of black plug and wear bright expressions where gloom was implanted before.

All of the big plants are operating on full time or nearly on full time. At Newcastle, Sharon, Tarentum, Vandergrift, McKeesport Swissvale and other big steel towns in the Pittsburgh district the mills are working full time with a long and steady run assured. Down the river at Morgantown, Parkersburg, Martin's Ferry, Moundsville Riverside and other West Virginia and Ohio cities the boom is on. The bulletin-board crowds have diminished—but more papers are being sold and more of the things advertised in the newspapers, too.

KEPT A SECRET FROM CREDITORS

A. P. WALKER ALLEGES in Suit Today Farmers Trust Co. Agreement Was Unknown to Some.

ASKS NOTES BE CANCELLED

Paper in Question Was For $3,000, and Was Executed to Claude Walker, Complaint Says.

Alleging that certain transactions involving the financial difficulties and subsequent settlement with the creditors of Alphons P. Walker were kept from the other creditors by the Farmers Trust Company, Walker today filed suit against the Farmers Trust Company of this city and Claude Walker, asking that three notes, each for $1,000, be cancelled. The legal entanglement between Walker and the Farmers Trust company have been many and this latest suit deals with three notes that Walker executed to Claude Walker about March 1, 1914. According to the complaint, the notes were for $1,000 each and were to fall due in one, two and three years and bearing six percent interest. The notes were payable at the Farmers Trust Company.

It is alleged in the complaint that Claude Walker afterwards endorsed the notes to the trust company and that they are now held there as collateral. The complaint avers that previous to the filing of the suit he had demanded the surrender of the notes, but the trust company refuses to give them to him even for inspection. The complaint is in two paragraphs, and in the first Walker asks that the defendant be required to deliver the notes to the plaintiff and that the trust company be enjoined and restrained from transferring or assigning the notes.

In the second paragraph Walker tells of his settlement with his various creditors at the rate of seventy cents on the dollar after a receiver had been appointed by the court to take charge of his estate. He sets out that before the Farmers Trust company would sign the agreement he was compelled to enter into a separate contract with them in which he paid the trust company $500 in cash and assigned seventeen shares of stock in the Rushville Glove company, at a market value of $2,000 and was compelled and did turn over to the defendant trust company a certain chattel mortgage and notes secured by the mortgage to the value of $1,000.

In the complaint, Walker states that this was all kept secret from the other creditors and was a fraud on the plaintiff and his other creditors. The contract entered between Walker and the trust company in the settlement is made a part of the complaint.

AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Washington, Feb. 2.—Ship purchase bill amendments limiting to six months the length of time the government may lease a ship to a private corporation, empowering the government to put minimum rates under the lease and invalidating the lease itself if the terms are violated were introduced in the upper house this afternoon by Senator La Follette. It was reported they represented the agreement between the president and the independent Republicans with whom he conferred this morning. Without taking up the ship purchase bill at all the senate adjourned until twelve o'clock Wednesday immediately after routine business was transacted. There was no objection from either side.

MAUZY IS NOW OFF MAP

Little Town East of Here Ceases to Exist as Station.

The little town of Mauzy, six miles east of this city, ceased to exist today, according to information given out by the C. H. & D. railroad, and the C. H. & D. office fixtures were removed. From a business viewpoint the office was a failure, and with the recent installation of the block service, an operator was not needed. About two years ago the State Public Service commission changed the name of the town from Griffin to Mauzy.

WILL FIX DATES AT NEXT MEETING

SHORT MEETING YESTERDAY

At the next meeting of the county board of education the township trustees will decide on the dates for holding the eighth year examinations. This was decided upon yesterday at the regular meeting. The state board of education specifies the time for holding the eighth year examinations and gives the trustees the right to hold these examinations on three dates, the third Saturday either in March, April or May.

Schools with seven months' term will likely hold the examinations on the third Saturday in April so as to give these a chance that receive a condition to take another examination. All pupils receiving a condition in not more than two subjects are given a chance to pass at a second examination and this one will likely be held the third Saturday in May.

The township trustees again discussed the question of obtaining commissions for their schools.

DR. D. IRA LAMBERT FAVORS PROJECT

The campaign to retain Miss Mary Moore here as visiting nurse, which is being waged by the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, was reported to be going in fine shape today. The campaign will be continued throughout the week and a meeting of the canvassers will be held tomorrow evening at Dr. W. S. Coleman's office. Dr. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who was not in touch with the situation because he was out of the city last week, today made a statement declaring himself in favor of the project.

"I wish to make use of the courtesy of the daily press," he said, "to express my most hearty commendation of the work. It has been my privilege to be closely connected and carefully to observe this important work in Cincinnati and to realize that it is one of the most fruitful sources of good which can be rendered a community. By all means let this splendid work be maintained and it will tell in the health and morals of Rushville and this region for all the years to come."

HOME FROM A SPEAKING TOUR

James E. Watson Due Here Today After Address at Topeka and Before Chicago Club.

LISTS G. O. P. CANDIDATES

Expresses Opinion in Chicago That Tariff Will be Paramount Issue in 1916 Campaign.

James E. Watson was expected home today from Chicago where he addressed last night the Hamilton Club, the largest Republican club in Chicago. Since he left home last Thursday Mr. Watson has been to Topeka, Kansas. He spoke at Topeka last Friday at the occasion of the fifty-fourth anniversary of the entrance of Kansas into the union and the commemoration of William McKinley's birthday. In the fifty-four years that Kansas has celebrated the event, Mr. Watson is the only man to be asked to return.

A Chicago dispatch to The Indianapolis Star this morning credited Mr. Watson with listing twelve men in the race for the Republican nomination for president, and with the assertion that the tariff question would be the paramount one in the 1916 campaign. The men he placed in the race were:

James R. Mann of Illinois, L. V. Sherman of Illinois, C. W. Fairbanks of Indiana, Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, Newton Harding of Ohio, T. E. Burton of Ohio, F. E. Willis of Ohio, J. W. Weeks of Massachusetts, C. S. Whitman of New York, W. A. Smith of Michigan, W. E. Borah of Idaho and W. E. McKinley of Illinois.

"It is too early to make a definite forecast," the Chicago dispatch says. Mr. Watson declared just before the address at the Hamilton Club. "The most ardent Progressive admits that the time has come to do the courageous thing, admit defeat and return to the Republican ranks. Their work has been accomplished. The belt of the Progressive has clarified the political atmosphere but now is the time to forget it."

"There is a host of men qualified to carry the standard in 1916. I understand you have three in Illinois who are in a receptive mood. I know little of Mr. Sherman or McKinley, but I do know something about James R. Mann. He is one of the greatest palamintarians I have ever known. He is a born leader. Coupled with his qualifications for public service is rare industry and a capacity for big work. He is always equipped for every debate and would make an excellent man to lead the next fight."

"Until sixty days ago Mr. Fairbanks had not considered the possibility of making the race. I understand now, however, he has agents in the field feeling the public pulse. His qualifications are so well known that I will not dwell upon them."

"Whitman of New York is a candidate and there is a movement on foot to launch his candidacy. I understand, at the big Republican rally at Albany on Feb. 12."

"Weeks of Massachusetts is perhaps the strongest man in the East. All New England seems to be rallying to his standard. Herrick of Ohio is leading a field of candidates. William Alden Smith of Michigan is laying his wives and Senator Borah of Idaho is gaining strength in the West."

Mr. Watson refused to commit himself to the candidacy of any one man. He said that the Republican party in Kansas is enthusiastic over the new outlook and that Indiana is falling in line.

WINS FIGHT ON FLOOR OF HOUSE

Representative Jinnett Succeeds in Having Hog Cholera Serum Bill Recommended

WANTS NO MISCONSTRUCTION

Fears Measure Might Prevent Farmers From Vaccinating Own Hogs—Against Monopoly

Representative W. R. Jinnett of this county made such a valiant fight in the lower house of the legislature in Indianapolis the other day against certain features of the hog cholera serum bill that he succeeded in getting the measure recommitted to the committee for the purpose of adding an amendment suggested by William C. Deck, of Martinsville, a farmer who represents Morgan county in the legislature.

The amendment was to the effect that nothing in the bill should be construed as to preventing farmers from buying and using serum. Representative Jinnett declared that he was in favor of throwing all safeguards possible about the manufacture and sale of hog cholera serum, but that he is opposed to monopoly and on the floor of the house showed himself perfectly able to take care of himself on any proposition on which he may stand.

The hog cholera serum bill provides that all hog cholera serum sold in Indiana shall first have been tested at Purdue university and shall have the seal of approval of that institution. Representative Jinnett thought this might tend to create a monopoly on the hog cholera serum business in Indiana and wanted the bill to stipulate plainly that there was nothing in the bill which would prevent farmers from vaccinating their own hogs if they cared to.

During the lively tilt on the floor of the house, the impression was made on a few members of the house that Jinnett was opposed to Purdue university. He declared, however, that such is not the case because he favors Purdue, but that he did not think Purdue should monopolize the sale of hog cholera serum.

When Jinnett finished his speech in which he succeeded in his purpose to get further consideration from the committee, personalities were indulged in between James Dummire, of Elkhart, representative from Elkhart county, and Maurice Douglas, of Elkhart, the representative from Shelby county.

Representative Jinnett declared himself to be for the farmers who composed the largest part of that class of people who pay taxes to keep up all the institutions of the state. The reason why Jinnett stood for the privilege of the farmers to treat their own hogs is that it is difficult to tell the difference between the hog cholera and the swine plague without a bacteriological examination. No veterinary surgeon is accustomed to make such examinations, therefore the farmer should be privileged to treat his own hogs if he wishes to do so, Jinnett declared.

WALL COLLAPSES; 7 KILLED.

(By United Press.)

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 2.—The north wall of the ruins of the Brown & Sehler Harness factory weakened by a fierce wind storm suddenly crashed to the ground today burying a score of workers beneath the debris. Seven men were killed outright and six others badly injured, one of whom may die.

A motion to relax the costs has been filed by Carlton Chaney in his case against Dr. Hugh H. Elliott and Dr. John T. Paxton in the Shelby circuit court.

Supplementary Evidence in Terre Haute Investigation Taken.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2.—The federal grand jury today heard new witnesses in the probe of Terre Haute election in which 126 indictments have been returned. The impression prevails that the evidence is supplementary to that which has already been taken. The end of the investigation left the impression that the Indianapolis probe was going on. Many Indianapolis witnesses were heard today.

ALL OHIO FACES FLOOD DANGER

River Men Today Forecast Most Serious One in Years With Ohio Rising Foot an Hour

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., Feb. 2.—Practically the entire state of Ohio faced flood dangers today.

Reports from every stream showed that rising waters that sent residents of lowlands fleeing to higher ground had isolated scores of families in one place and caused the most serious apprehension since the disastrous flood of March, 1913. Heavy thaws and rains of the last sixty hours were the cause.

The Ohio river was jumping to the flood stage early today at the rate of over a foot an hour. The greatest apprehension was felt in the section between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. Forecasts for this section say that by tomorrow morning a forty-five foot stage will have been reached, inundating a large area and driving 40,000 families from their homes. River men predicted the most serious flood in years. Wheeling, W. Va., Bellaire, Bridgeport, and Martins Ferry, Ohio and many other towns and cities are affected.

BELIEVES LAW WILL STAND TEST

Ralston Does Not Doubt Constitutionality of Anti-Lobby Bill Which Some Question.

ACTION OF THE LEGISLATURE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 2.—Governor Ralston declared today that he had no doubt about the constitutionality of the anti-lobby bill which has been questioned by eminent corporation attorneys. The bill was expected to reach the governor's desk today.

Those who say the bill is unconstitutional say that it abridges the right of petition.

Over the protest of senators from river counties the senate today by a vote of 27 to 19 passed the Lanz bill creating a closed season in May and June for mussel fishing. Opposition to the bill from the button industry makes passage in the house doubtful. The bill is designed to protect fish.

The senate passed the Wood bill to compel county surveyors to turn over unfinished work to their successors and the Ballou bill permitting reasonable delays in guardians' reports.

ONE-HALF WOULD GO TO CHARITY

Supt. Greathouse Would Have School Children Contribute to Red Cross Society.

Celebration of Lincoln's birthday, which is one week from next Friday, in the schools of Indiana by contributions to the American Red Cross Society is proposed by Charles A. Greathouse in a circular letter sent out yesterday and one of which was received this morning by C. M. George, county superintendent.

The state superintendent is hopeful that Indiana will come forward with a splendid sum. He suggests that children not only contribute their own pennies, in whatever measure they feel able to do so, but that teachers assist by arranging for public entertainments, the proceeds of which might be added to the contribution of any given room or school.

The proposal will be submitted to every school in Rush county and it will be up to the teachers whether the day is observed as requested by the state superintendent. The idea is entirely original with Indiana, it is said, and in case it is a pronounced success here, it is likely other states will adopt it. Superintendent Greathouse says it has not been the policy of his administration to seek donations from the public schools for any cause, no matter how meritorious it appeared. Continuing his letter says:

"But a call has come to us, through the Governor of Indiana, from an organization whose splendid philanthropic work has reached to every quarter of the globe; an organization that has served the needy and suffering in periods of great international strife and has proved, at all times, a blessing to mankind. This organization—the Society of the Red Cross—is asking the public schools to aid, financially, in relieving the distress of millions of children whose homes are devastated and whose schools are closed through the ravages of war. Surely no appeal could be made in the interests of a holier cause, and for it, we urge your earnest co-operation and enthusiastic support."

February 12, 1915, the day on which this contribution is to be made, is the anniversary of the birth of a great statesman and leader.

Opportunity's Knock

When the national manufacturer advertises his product in this newspaper, opportunity knocks at the door of every retailer who carries the goods.

The manufacturers' advertising creates a definite demand. It inspires people with a desire to see the goods. These people will be attracted to the store that shows them.

They will be consumers not only for the manufacturer's goods but also customers for the storekeeper's goods.

The modern storekeeper is alert to take advantage of the manufacturer's newspaper advertising.

In the slang of the day, "He boasts when opportunity knocks."

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect. Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mr. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

PECULIAR AFTER EFFECTS OF GRIP THIS YEAR

Leaves Kidneys in Weakened Condition

Doctors in all parts of the country have kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50 cents and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.

ADMIT THERE IS SUCH AN ANIMAL

But This is as Far as Weather Department Would go on Ground Hog Stuff

IS POPULAR JUST THE SAME

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 2.—Did you ever watch the actions today of Mr. Arctomys Monax? Everybody was doing it.

Arctomys Monax being scientific name for ground hog, today was "Ground Hog" day, the popular weather arbiter for the next six weeks. Whether Mr. G. Hog saw his shadow today and goes into hibernation for six weeks more of nasty winter weather was the question—except at the U. S. Weather Bureau. "Stuff and nonsense" was how a Weather Bureau official today indignantly discussed the effect upon the weather if old Arctomys Monax saw his shadow.

"We don't take any stock in that here" the government weather forecaster declared. Admission that there really is such an animal or a ground hog, or woodchuck, was as far as the scientific claps would go.

Mrs. Gertrude Koel, Smithfield, Pa., writes: "I had rheumatism for over a year; it settled in my ankles and I could not walk. I have taken one bottle of Rheuma and do not have any more pain, and I can again walk at will."

Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists sell Rheuma for 50 cents. It is guaranteed to cure any case of any kind of rheumatism or money back.

BRAKE RELINING

HOW DOES THE REAR AXLE OF YOUR CAR "SOUND" AND ACT?

Is it noisy, loose and does it seem to "gather together" before the car moves, instead of acting noiselessly and as a single unit?

Every car's "rear end" should be overhauled once a year and the brakes should be relined—if you want to enjoy safe, "worry free" motoring and have brakes that HOLD.

Now is the time to have US do the work—here in a first class shop where ALL the work is done by skilled mechanics.

Abraham Lincoln, whose unselfish devotion to right and whose broad human sympathy made him the idol of a nation.

"This war relief fund, to be known as the Lincoln fund, has been started by the state department of public instruction with a contribution of $50, and we are asking that an amount of one penny, or more, if the donor cares to enlarge it be contributed by each child in the schools of Indiana. A receipt for the full amount from each school will be returned to it, and can be preserved as a souvenir of the sympathy and generosity of children in one land toward those in another. The names of the school and amounts contributed will be published in the papers of the state.

"It is further suggested that, when feasible, this small donation be made a matter of effort or self-denial on the part of the school children, in that it represents a recompense for some individual work of theirs, or a sum that would otherwise have been expended for some individual pleasure. There are not many boys and girls who can not find an occasion for earning one or more pennies, and not many who may not easily deny themselves a penny's worth of pleasure that the money thus secured may aid the homeless suffering children across the sea.

"The lessons of unselfishness, sympathy, and kindness that will come from such a movement in the public schools will be far more effective than months of formal instruction in the abstract principles of these essentials of mind and heart.

"This appeal is made to the schools, then, not only because it comes from the Society of the Red Cross and has for its purpose the preservation of human life by administering to distressing needs, but because it will give to the children in our own land an opportunity to display such traits of character as are indispensable to the highest type of citizenship.

"This requests for contribution includes school officials, superintendents and teachers. It is a statewide appeal and is addressed not only to the public schools of Indiana, but to every educational institution in the state."

Financial Ghost Walks

Intelligences from Washington say the federal financial ghost is walking and that the president and his cabinet are beginning to show real concern about the condition of the government's finances. In spite of the "war-in-the-time-of-peace" direct tax, the treasury continues to act just like the proverbial dog's tail.

Economy is the watchword. But what is mystifying those in touch with the situation is that the president, in the face of the exasperating conditions, insists that the ship purchase bill be made a law, which in itself, would entail the expenditure of thirty millions of dollars.

For the six months and twenty-six days of the current fiscal year up to the close of business the disbursements of the government were $449,069,505, an excess of $87,555,252 over receipts. Last year expenditures for the same period were $436,614,234, but the receipts were more than $35,000,000 higher, leaving an excess of expenditures over receipts of only $39,667,831. That only one of the general appropriation bills has been passed and signed by the President—the urgent deficiency bill—is regarded as fortunate.

Congress, although it passed the Underwood tariff bill which contributed more than any other one cause to reduce the country's revenue, is not in tune with the administration's plan to prune. The postmaster general recommended that the rural mail service be placed on a contract basis and that the salaries of postmasters and their assistants be reduced. Congress objected to injuring the mail service, because it was manifestly poor economy, and not only refused to agree to these recommendations and voted for a continuance of present conditions in the mail service, but made additional appropriations that increased the postal expenditures more than nineteen million dollars above the estimates made by the postmaster general.

The falling off of revenue has been causing concern for weeks and the idea that sooner or later it would be necessary to call a halt on the way congress has been proposing to spend money has been the theme of many five-minute speeches on the floor of the house. The house has passed the postoffice, legislative, Indian, river and harbor and army bills, but they are yet to be acted on by the senate. It would be possible to prune any of these, and there is talk of killing the river and harbor bill outright. There is also talk of cutting down the naval program and the "little navy" men will make a desperate fight to that end.

Chairman Fitzgerald frankly admitted that great difficulty would be experienced in readjusting the money bills to fit amended estimates. He said it seemed altogether unlikely that anything like the $40,000,000 necessary to be saved in the annual budget could now be expunged.

It is expected that $51,000,000 will be received from the direct tax during the fiscal year. To date customs receipts have shown a loss of $56,000,000, but in recent weeks the losses have been less pronounced. Substantially all of the corporation and income tax is paid in June, and it is expected that between $80,000,000 and $90,000,000 will be received from this source.

It was said today that one plan that might be brought forward would be to lower the income tax exemption below $3,000. This, however, probably will not be seriously considered, except as a last resort.

In connection with the army bill, it is pointed out, approximately $2,500,000 for a new army transport, now carried in the bill, should be eliminated.

Political observers who read the speech of William Dudley Foulke of Richmond at a Progressive meeting in Indianapolis last week predict that he is heading for the Republican party. However, he made some remarks which are not calculated to make him an honorary member of the Republican party. Mr. Foulke "orated" at some length on "national security being paramount to any other" and declared his intentions of voting "for that party which gives me the strongest assurance that our country shall be defended against aggression. If the Republican party is the only one which can supply such assurance, then I intend to hold my nose and vote for every unregenerate rascal whom it may nominate, if he is the only man that tells me my country shall be protected." In the business of holding one's nose, Mr. Foulke must be an adept, judging from past performances.

People's Column

In the Hands of a Receiver

The following from the Christian Standard has been sent in by a subscriber of the Daily Republican with the request that it be printed:

A system known as the "Foster Breweries Company" founded in 1835 with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio and branches throughout the east, and capitalized at $12,000,000, passed into the hands of receivers December 23rd.

Here are the reasons assigned by the company for the failure, and it affords us extreme pleasure to copy them:

"In 1908 Ohio Legislature passed the Rose County option law, which took from us annually over eighty-one thousand barrels sales in

Ohio. 1909 the full effect of the Rose law was felt to the extent of reducing our sales in that year to about 274,000 barrels.

"In 1913 the new license law curtailed the number of saloons in Columbus 20 per cent, and in the state of Ohio, 33 per cent.

"In 1914 the crowning blow came when West Virginia was lost, where we did a business of nearly a half-million dollars last year, to say nothing of Old Virginia voting dry, which

When a shot knocks out such a company as this, may be well named a "center-shot" and a good, big one at that.

 NOTES OF INTEREST ***
 TO INDIANA REPUBLICANS. ***

(BY L. W. HENLEY.)

The Logansport Republican Club is making plans to celebrate Lincoln's birthday. An effort will be made to secure Former Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois to make the principal speech.

The Republicans of Wayne county will enjoy a banquet in Richmond some time this winter, the date to be announced later.

According to Democratic plans Bryan and Kern are to address the Indiana legislature on Feb. 4. If an afternoon of the legislature's time is consumed by these noted Democrats it will cost the taxpayers of Indiana approximately $1,000. There are Democrats in Indiana who figure it would be cheaper to have the state "hire a hall" and pay Bryan his usual Chautauqua fee than to stage the performance in the legislative halls. And there are still other Democrats in the state who wonder, if in the face of the fact that the people of Indiana have heard these men orate on numerous occasions during the past twenty years whether, if any event, the coming attraction is worth the price.

A former Democratic state senator and the chairman of the St. Joseph county Progressive committee in the recent campaign were interested participants in a big Republican love feast held at South Bend recently.

Comparing the official returns of the 1914 election in Indiana with the result of the 1912 election, the Republican gains in the following counties were larger than the combined Progressive and Democratic losses: Bartholomew, Benton, Carroll, Clinton, Daviess, Decatur, Fountain, Fulton, Gibson, Greene, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Howard, Huntington, Jasper, Jefferson, Lagrange, Lake Lawrence, Madison, Miami, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Randolph, Ripley, Rush, Shelby, Spencer, Tipton, Union, Warren, Warrick, Wayne and White.

At the recent election the Republicans made a gain of more than 1,000 votes to a county in 16 counties and they made gains of over 500 votes in each of 36 other counties.

The Republicans polled a total of less than 1,000 votes in only nine counties in Indiana at the recent election. In 1912 they failed to reach this total in 26 counties.

The Democratic vote in Lagrange, Ohio, Switzerland, Dubois and Ripley counties appears to be rather stable. There was a difference of but three votes between the Democratic totals in Lagrange county in 1912 and 1914; the difference in Switzerland was but six votes; seven in Ohio; nine in Dubois and ten in Ripley.

Central Delivery System

It is with pleasure that we, the undersigned merchants announce to our customers that we have contracted with the Benson Delivery Co., to establish a central delivery station in this city. We did this only after a thorough investigation in other cities where such systems are established. Wherever they are in operation, central delivery systems are meeting the approval of both merchants and patrons.

Central Delivery Starts Mon. February 15What It Does....

CENTRAL DELIVERY enables the merchant to organize his working force and confine all his attention within the store, without worry about getting orders out on time, for the delivery is in charge of a responsible man, who will see that goods go out on schedule time.

CENTRAL DELIVERY in no way prevents competition, as every merchant fixes his own prices.

CENTRAL DELIVERY will benefit customers, as they can place their orders and know just at what hour to expect the delivery wagon, by referring to their schedule.

With co-operation between merchants and customers, the new system will be a pleasure and a satisfaction to all concerned and we feel that we have solved a problem, that in the past, has required too much of the merchant's time that should have been devoted to matters within the store.

The new Central Station, under the management of E. E. Benson, is located at Morgan and Water streets in a new sanitary building, built especially for this purpose, and you are invited there at any time to see the careful handling of orders.

For an eleven o'clock dinner or merchandise wanted early, place your order in time for the eight o'clock delivery.

With your co-operation in the new system, we expect Rushville to have the best delivery service that has ever been given.

to the betterment of boys and who, through his work, has become known as "the Boys Minister", before leaving today for Milwaukee, Wis., took occasion to heap praise on the officials and teachers of the Rushville schools for the high plane to which they have brought the public schools in Rushville. Dr. Snyder will spend two weeks in Wisconsin and will return here February 18 and will address the high school again on the day following. Dr. Snyder has already spoken at the high school twice and at the Havens building once.

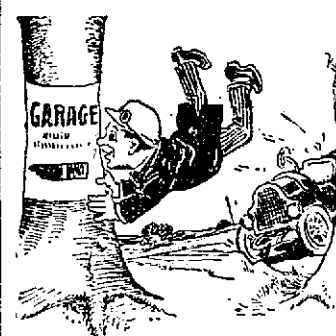

"I feel that it is my duty," he said, "to voice some praise for the schools of Rushville because they are far above the average for the city of this size and compare most favorably with those of much larger places. Superintendent J. H. Scholl and Principal H. B. Wilson are especially to be commended for the wonderful work they have accomplished. The schools seem to me to be more than a mere place of learning. They have the idea of service and realize there is another side to the pupil beside the intellectual."

In parting, however, Dr. Snyder stated that he noticed a lamentable lack of places for boys to go and expressed the hope that something might come to pass which would provide an institution for them.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp—At Once

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

DONOVAN LAYS DOWN NEW RULE

AS WELL AS THE ELUSIVE FLY

(Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 2.—Candidates for outfield berths on the rejuvenated Yankees this season will have to prove themselves as adept at handling ground balls as they are snaring the elusive fly before they can be sure of their jobs.

This is the latest ultimatum laid down by Manager Bill Donovan and only one of the several innovations. Wild William is planning to introduce in the hope that the Highlander can be kicked back in the elite section of Ban Johnson's loop.

"Many is the game," soliloquized Bill recently, "I have lost myself and seen other pitchers lose through some goat-headed outfielder kicking a ground ball clear to the fence."

In directing his gardeners toward this end, Wild William will be aided by Joe Kelley, one time famous outfielder on the Baltimore Orioles, and now chief ivory hinner for the Yankees.

"We used to do it the old days," said Joe, the other day "and I can't see why we can't do it now. Many is the time I have seen Hughey Jennings, McGraw and many other old stars work for hours at a stretch learning the hop of a ball over a certain bit of ground. An infielder isn't considered much of a man if he isn't a good judge of a fly ball—then why shouldn't the outer defense be just as good judge of a ground ball?"

Bob Shawkey just learned recently that he broke his hand in the world's series last October. The hand had been troubling him for his right flipper was badly cracked, doctor examine it. The examination some time and not long ago he had a showed that the two small bones in Shawkey lays the blame onto Rabbit Maranville. He remembers, he said after stopping a sissler off the Rabbit's bat, that his hand pained him. The M. D. fixed it up and promised Bob that he would be as good as ever next season.

TWO SONS OF PETER THE GREAT COMING

WILL RACE THEM THIS YEAR

Dick Wilson has leased from the Patchen Wilks stock farm of Lexington, Ky., "Peter Pearl," a four-year-old stallion, with a race record of 2:09 1/4, and "Peter The Gay," a two-year-old stallion with a record of 2:10 1/4. These horses are very high class trotters, and barring accidents, will get records of 2:05 or better this year, it is believed. "Peter The Gay" is the only horse to make a season in Indiana with a two-year-old record as fast as 2:10 1/4. "Peter The Great," 2:07 1/4, their sire, is conceded by all horsemen to be one of the greatest horses living or dead, having had forty-five to enter the list last year. "Peter The Great" is the sire of "Peter Volo," 2:03 1/4, the champion three-year-old trotter of the world, winner of the Kentucky Futurity and all of the stake races, in which he started. The horses are not only high class trotters, but they are royally bred and are good individuals. After the season, Dick Wilson will race them.

STOCK COMPANY NOW ASSURED

Meeting Will be Held Sunday at Which Time Organization Will be Formed For Club.

FANS BELIEVE IT WILL GO

Efforts Will be Made to Give City Best Team it Ever Had—Davidson to be Present.

A movement which has been under way for several weeks to reorganize the Rushville baseball club by forming a stock company will be brought to a definite form Sunday afternoon when a meeting will be held in the assembly room of the court house for the purpose of forming an organization. The meeting is scheduled for two o'clock.

The idea of a stock company is not a new one to the fans interested in the success of the game and it is expected that a large crowd will attend the meeting as the plan will be made plain and it is hoped to have the organization well enough advanced to go ahead with the plans for the coming season.

It is generally conceded that the stock company plan is the only safe one by which the team can be operated and it has found many supporters already. With the baseball season less than three months distant it is figured that now is the time to make the necessary arrangements.

An effort will be made to secure one hundred stock holders or more as the success of the movement depends on the number interested. It is believed under this plan with every one interested in the success of the team that Rushville can be given the best ball team it has ever had and with a schedule arranged with the teams of other nearby cities the year would be the best ever had here. Under the old way of operating the club one man was the manager and the whole works but within a stock company one stock holder would have as much at stake as the other and all would pull for the best interests of the team.

Papers were being circulated today in an effort to see how many fans would take hold of the movement. At the meeting Sunday plans for the year will be discussed and the organization will be more fully explained. If enough signers for stock are secured it may be possible to form the organization with the board of directors, president and secretary. If this is done work will be started soon on putting the ball park in shape. It is planned to erect a modern grand stand.

Big Ed Davidson, manager of last years team will be present Sunday and from all indications the meeting will be a success. The meeting is open to the public and all that are interested in the success of the team are being urged to attend.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid, which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts: take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

PIG CLUBS TO BE ORGANIZED

Will Teach Through Youths a Better and Larger Swine Industry For The State.

Purdue leaflet No. 56, just issued from the extension department of Purdue University, is the announcement of a new club project in Indiana that promises to do much for the interests of animal husbandry. The club for boys and girls has proved a very effective means of getting results.

It deals with a class between the ages of 10 and 18 who are learners and therefore, better inclined towards instruction than the farmer who has been out of school too long to learn new ways. To be sure the Indiana farmer is proving daily that he can learn new methods and apply them, but often he has learned from his boy who became a member of a boys club.

The new club project now undertaken with the co-operation of the bureau of animal industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is to organize pig clubs and teach through them a better and larger swine industry for the state. Leaflet No. 56 is the work of F. M. Shanklin, recently appointed assistant in pig club work and shows why the pig has been selected for club work.

The pig clubs and corn clubs will not be rivals but should enroll as far as possible the same boys. In this way the corn will be used as part of the feed for the pig. One purpose to be served by the pig club is to convince the boy that corn alone should not be fed especially to growing pigs. More money will be made and larger as well as cheaper gains will result if a proper supplement to the corn is found and a more balanced ration obtained.

The use of forage crops also is emphasized and the boys will be shown the extravagance of dry lot feeding. Proper housing and the need of sanitation will help in the fight against hog cholera. These and other lines will be undertaken by the pig clubs, all of which are outlined in this leaflet. Copies of this as well as other bulletins may be had by application.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

LOAN BUSINESS FOR WOMEN ONLY

May Become Reality Soon in New York Instead of Idle Dream of Some Theorist

Unemployed Situation Has Opened Eyes of Many and City May Take Hold of Proposition

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK
New York, Feb. 2.—Municipal loan business exclusively for women may become a reality in New York instead of the idle dream of some theorist before another period of "social and industrial unrest" rolls around.

The unemployed situation opened the eyes of people interested in social work as to what could be accomplished by means of such bureaus. The unemployed situation also opened the public's eyes to the fact that unless something was done, some drastic action taken, immorality was going to increase by leaps and bounds by the time another such period came around.

In the investigation of Samuel A. Stodel, assigned by the Public Forum to enumerate the unemployed in New York City, he reported that there were 125,000 women in New York who were out of work and facing the alternative of starving or being driven to immorality.

Particularly on the lower East Side with its teeming thousands of laboring people was this state of affairs found to be existing, he said. Most of the girls were factory employees, garment workers and such, who under normal conditions received a wage that enables them only to exist. A great many of these were of foreign birth or extraction, although many were found, he said, who under normal conditions were classed as "hardworking, respectable American working girls."

"Unemployed women can hardly be dealt with in the same manner we can deal with jobless men," said Stodel. "Work can, with some effort be created for men. You can take a gang of men out and put 'em to work on some public improvement such as street work, sewer construction or the thousand and one other forms of manual labor."

"But when it comes to women, then your sociological experts and economist are stumped. Women certainly cannot be put to work constructing streets and sewers."

"So, after an investigation extending over a period of three weeks, the only way I can see to deal with the problem is for the city to establish a loan bureau which will advance sums of money to women out of work until they are able to get jobs."

"An empty stomach knows no conscience, but a full one does. Experiments carried on in other cities in the United States have proven conclusively that loan bureaus of a similar type are successful from the standpoint of the creditors paying back the loans."

"A rate of interest could be charged if deemed advisable, say enough to make the institution self supporting. Of course, it necessarily could not be great, nor should it be, for the city would profit enough should it rid itself of the problem of caring for these women."

"I have found that in most cases immorality and prostitution are the result of poverty, sometimes one sharp pinch causes it, and again it may be prolonged. The number of scarlet women who choose the life voluntarily are extremely few. Once down, they scarcely ever get up, they're a social burden and a drag on clean government."

"Society can prevent a lot of its burdens if it will. These women can be made into social units—of benefit to the world, if society will but make the effort. And certainly the establishment of such bureaus as I have suggested looks to be the most rational and the easiest way

WILL BE HELD IN FEBRUARY

No Medicine Will be Administered But Careful Examinations of Children Will be Made.

Dental and medical societies in Indianapolis are setting an interesting precedent for the rest of the state in connection with the State Child Welfare Exposition to be held in the capital for ten days beginning February 16th.

For the benefit of the thousands of parents who accompany their children to the exposition, the two societies will maintain in constant operation, free medical and dental conferences for boys and girls.

No medicine will be administered at these conferences but the experts in charge will make careful examinations for tuberculosis, enlarged tonsils, adenoids, decayed teeth, defective eyesight, impaired hearing and other childhood troubles.

"An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure" will be the motto and the parents will be advised by the experts concerning the steps to be taken in each case. Since the treatment itself will not be given in these free clinics, the parents will be advised to consult their "family" physician or dentist at an early date, where it is found that the immediate application of a remedy is needed.

The exposition, however, will not deal altogether with health problems. The reaction department is arranging an interesting section of the exhibit which will be devoted to the development of the playground idea. The adage "All Work and No Play Makes Jack a Dull Boy" hangs in a conspicuous place in the rooms occupied by the committee. With this in mind, the committee is planning a number of folk dances, drills, games and other interesting phases of well balanced child life.

In this connection the state organization of Boy Scouts will constantly maintain a camp fire with hourly demonstrations of the various phases of Boy Scout life, both rural and urban. The Camp Fire Girls from over the state will be included in the reaction section and will present interesting drills and exercises.

The Daily Republican goes into every town, community and neighborhood in Rush County, and has more paid subscribers than all the rest of the Rushville papers combined. Right now everybody is looking for and reading sale notices. They want to buy. The Republican's "Public Sales" advertisements tell them who is having a sale, when and where. Sale bills will always be used but their number is decreasing. Newspaper advertising is found to reach more people and when they are in a mood to read, and is getting more popular all the time. IMPORTATIONS ARE LIMITED

Agriculture Department Says Havoc By Malady is Some Times Underestimated.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Because of the prevalence of foot-and-mouth disease in Europe and South America, importations of live stock are now limited practically to shipments from Great Britain, Ireland, and the Channel Is-les. Even with these countries trade has been interrupted several times in recent years, for the Government does not permit the importation of animals from countries where the disease exists, and there have been several outbreaks in Great Britain lately.

Up to November, 1906, American ports were open to Belgium and Holland. In that month, however, some sheep were taken into Belgium from France where the disease was quite prevalent and brought the pestilence with them. By the end of the year every province in Belgium was affected, and Holland as well. Since that time both of these countries have been fighting the disease but have not yet succeeded in eradicating it.

In Italy, France, Switzerland, Germany, and Russia, the plague has existed so long and has gained such a foothold that it is economically impossible to fight it with the American methods of slaughter and disinfection, for to do so would be to kill a large percentage of the live stock in these countries. In consequence, the authorities appear to be making little or no progress in their campaign. The outbreak, for example, which appeared in Germany in 1888 increased steadily until 1892 when it diminished gradually for a few years but again reached great proportions in 1899. Thereafter it continued to exist to a greater or less extent until in 1911 it attained a virulence unequalled before. In that year 3,366,369 cattle, 1,002,927 sheep, 2,555,371 hogs, and 63,674 goats were affected. At that time the total number of cattle, sheep, swine, and goats in Germany was only 51,319,000, while there were in the United States, 172,572,000, or between three and four times as many. It can readily be imagined, therefore, what it would mean to the United States if the disease was to gain the foothold here that it had in Germany where, as these figures show, approximately one out of seven of the animals susceptible to the disease was affected.

Since the mortality in the disease is comparatively low, ranging from only 3 per cent in mild forms to 50 or 40 per cent in malignant cases, the havoc caused by the pestilence is sometimes underestimated. From the work of various scientists, however, who have endeavored to ascertain the decrease in value of an average this amounts in Germany to $7.00 and in Holland to $10.00. In this country with its higher prices, the loss is correspondingly greater. If these figures be accepted, it is obvious that the amount of money spent in eradicating the disease becomes insignificant in comparison with the loss it causes when left to itself.

The German Government, of course, has not left the disease to itself. The more recent outbreaks it attempted to control by the American method of slaughter, but the pestilence had gained too much headway and was too firmly established in too many portions of the country for this method to succeed, and the slaughter of the infected herds had to be abandoned. It now appears that there is no hope of getting rid of it until the virus has worn itself out. At present it seems that as soon as the animal's period of acquired immunity is over and favorable conditions present themselves, the contagion breaks out with renewed virulence so that the authorities have practically abandoned all hope of controlling it by means of quarantines. One scientist indeed has asserted that unless all the infected farms were absolutely isolated and the movement not only of live stock but of persons, absolutely prohibited, the disease could not be stamped out. Such a quarantine is, of course, utterly impossible to enforce.

FOUR BANKS IN RUSH COUNTY PAY $5,305

THIRD PAYMENT IN 6 MONTHS

The four Rush county national banks, members of the Federal Reserve banks, sent a total of $5,305 as their second installment on their subscription to the bank's stock. This second installment was the same as the first made on November 2. The amounts each bank from this county paid are as follows: Peoples National bank, $1,250; Rush County National bank, $2,000; Rushville National bank, $1,750, and the First National Bank of Mays, $305.

The banks were compelled to subscribe six per centum of their capital and surplus to the capital of the reserve banks. One-sixth of this was payable on November 2, one-sixth on February 2, which payment was made today and one-sixth is payable in six months from now and the balance is subject to call.

TESTING SEED CORN SAVES CROP LOSSES

Little Extra Work During Dull Winter Days May Produce Big Results at Harvest Time.

One of the most profitable occupations for the farmer at this time of the year, when outside work is difficult, is testing seed corn for next year's crop. A little time spent in this way may mean a big saving when the crop is harvested. The average seed ear contains about 800 grains, each of which should be capable of producing a stalk with at least one good ear on it. If a dead ear is allowed to get into the seed box the loss will be about 10 or 12 bushels at harvest.

The testing should be done in one of the many forms of testers. When moisture is applied at the normal growing temperature the grain will sprout in from five to six days. All ears that do not show a high percentage of germination should be discarded.

TO DISCUSS LEGISLATION.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—Proposed legislation will be discussed at a special meeting of the district chairmen of the Woman's Franchise League which will be held here tomorrow.

Hundreds of Women

nowadays are entering the professions or business world and go to work day after day in bad health afflicted with some female ailment, dragging one foot wearily after the other, working with an eye on the clock, and wishing for closing time to come.

Women in this condition should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. It has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy. Give it a trial.

CELEBRATE BY CONTRIBUTING

Senator Van Auken Proposes to Combine Indiana and Purdue in State Institution.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—"The alumni of Indiana University shall be and are hereby made the alumni of Purdue University."

With that provision forming Section 4 of "a bill for an act to consolidate Indiana University and Purdue University and to provide for the government thereof," it was considered probable that even the anti-lobby law would be incompetent to cope with the lobby that would at once form against the proposal of Senator Van Auken.

As one Indiana alumnus expressed it today,

"Perish the thought: &?/—!"

The bill goes to provide means by which Indiana University would cease to exist during the summer of 1916. The alumni of Indiana would, under the bill, celebrate their sudden change to Purdue alumni by electing on the Tuesday preceding the next annual commencement of a trustee to Purdue university. Other machinery for the election of trustees is provided.

Provision is made that no member of either faculty should be discharged, except for misconduct, until August 1, 1916.

The property and equipment located in Bloomington would as soon as practicable be moved to Purdue University at Lafayette, and regular instruction by "The University at Bloomington" would cease after July 1, 1916.

The bill has an emergency clause, which would place it into immediate effect after passage.

The attitude of the Purdue alumni was expressed by one of their number who was asked about the proposed blend of the Red and White with the Old Gold and Black.

"It would be fine," he said, "if they moved Indiana to Lafayette." "How about moving Indiana to Lafayette and changing the name of Purdue to Indiana?" he was asked.

"Oh, not on your life! That would never do," he said.

Indiana alumni are known to feel much the same concerning the name of Indiana University to Purdue. No Provision is made in the bill for the colors of the new university.

Because of a bequest, the university at Lafayette must always be called Purdue, which may have influenced Van Auken in the selection of the name.

Van Auken said that the consolidation of the two schools would give Indiana more prestige in its higher educational system. This prestige, he said, would be equal to that now enjoyed by the University of Wisconsin or the University of Michigan.

Bitter rivalry springing largely from athletic relations has so engrossed the two institutions in Indiana for so long that it is considered doubtful whether either would look with favor on the prospect of losing its identity in the other.

Central Delivery Will be in Force in Rushville One Week From
Next Monday.

Merchants Believe They Have Solv-
ed Vexing Problem—Central Station Being Built.

Rushville will be treated to an innovation one week from next Monday when the Benson central delivery system gets under way here.
The beginning of the consolidated delivery system will mark the passing of the delivery wagon in Rush-
ville because practically every store
in Rushville that has deliveries to make has made a contract with the Benson Delivery company.

The methods of the concern were announced today. All goods will be sent out on their routes from a central station which will be located
just back of the Red Men's building
in First street. J. C. Clore is erecting the building there on his ground
and has leased it to the Benson Delivery company.

ten o'clock in the morning and at
two and four in the afternoon with
an additional delivery at night on Saturday, which will start at nine o'clock. All goods will be collected from the stores and taken to the central station where they will be sorted.

The new central station is to be a sanitary building, it is stated. The
opening on a central platform where deliveries will be sorted and then
loaded into the respective wagons.

It is urged by the Benson Delivery
company that when housewives
want for an eleven o'clock dinner or earlier for any other purpose, that
they get their orders in for the eight o'clock morning delivery in order to be certain that they will receive their goods in time.

Many arguments are advanced in favor of the central delivery system. It is held that it enables merchants to center his attention on his store and organize his force of
clerks thoroughly without having
the trouble of worry of getting out
orders on time.

It is further stated that the central delivery system in no way prevents competition as every merchant
fixes his own prices. It also, has been found to be a benefit to the
customers because they can always
refer to their schedule and be sure what hour to expect the delivery
wagon.

With perfect co-operation between merchants and their customers, E. E. Benson, the manager of the system here, feels that the innovation will be a "pleasure and a
satisfaction to all concerned." It is stated that the merchants enter
into the agreement with the feeling
that they have solved the problem
which has taken entirely too much
of their time away from their work
in their respective stores.

The following grocers will deliver
through the system: L. L. Allen, A.
L. Aldridge, Charles Berry, Black &
Company, O. C. Brann & Sons,
Brown Brothers, H. G. Hackman,
Havens Brothers, Lam H. Havens &
Company, Newhouse Brothers, John
Kelley, Jr. Other stores who will deliver through the Benson agency
are: Weeks Fresh Meat & Provision Company, D. M. Casady meat market, E. R. Casady dry goods
store, Bee Hive department store, J.
W. Hogsett dry goods store, Bliss &
Cowing clothing store, Knecht

nine cent store and all drug stores,
hardware stores and other merchants who desire to accommodate
their patrons by using the Benson

United States Senator Writes Letter
to Author of Bill Now Before
Indiana Legislature.

IT IS MADE PUBLIC TODAY

Still Another Measure Would Have
Question Submitted to People
For a Vote in 1916.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—The belief
that Senator John W. Kern may allow his influence to aid the Jones-Rinear state-wide direct primary
bill when he comes here with Secretary Bryan Thursday was strengthened today when Representative
John R. Jones (Dem.) author of the bill exhibited a letter from Kern in which the Indiana senator enlarged
on the benefits and feasibility of the state-wide primary. He did not mention the Jones bill but the "good
points" that Kern mentioned as necessary to any satisfactory primary
law are said to be contained in the
Jones-Rinear bill.

Kern's letter follows:
"My opinion of the direct primary
is distinctly favorable. There are no vital defects in the direct
primary system. Where the primary laws have been perfected by
giving the elector the right to vote
for first and second choice and
where machinery provided is not
cumbersome, the direct primary has
been the means of making government more responsible to popular needs.

"The direct primary has been the means of improving the character of
men chosen to public office.

"The fact that nearly every state
in the union has adopted a primary system, that no serious effort has been made to get rid of it in any
state, and that as the laws are improved and the people educated in
the use of such laws the system
grows more and more popular, would seem to be very strong and convincing arguments in its favor.

"A primary law weak in construction, drafted in the spirit of dis-
trust of the people, full of loop
holes, is much worse than none,
while on the other hand a measure
so drafted as to embody the useful
features of the latest statutes on
the subject giving to the people as-
correctly registered and giving equally positive assurance to every man contemplating frauds and sharp
practice that he will surely wear stripes if he attempts to subvert or thwart the will, would be a long
stride forward in the cause of popular government.

Signed "JOHN W. KERN."

Jones said that the bill introduced
yesterday by Representative Os-
born (Dem.) of Posey county, would
be the kind of bill denounced by Senator Kern as "worse than none."
The Osborn bill, he said, would not
be fulfilling the party pledge. It would, he said, be asking the people
to decide over again what they have already decided. He said when the Democratic state ticket was elected
and a Democratic majority was returned to the assembly on a platform coming out flat-footed for the
direct primary, the people showed
that they favored such a primary.

"The Democrats have been for the
direct primary and have promised it
ever since William J. Bryan in 1895
said 'Let the People Rule.' If we do not give what we have promised
the party will be discredited," he
said.

The Osborn bill would have the direct primary question submitted to
the people at the general election of 1916 for a majority vote. A majority for the primary would not
place it into effect, but the vote
would be considered as advisory for
the 1917 legislature.

COMMANDERY MEETING.

Rushville Commandery No.
49 K. T. will hold their stated convolve Wednesday evening at 7:30. After the regular business session, the Red Cross degree will be conferred on a number

son administration spell success for
the Republicans," Mr. Watson continued.

"Some of the prize Wilson blunders were the passing of the Panama Canal toll bill, the vacillating
policy toward Mexico and the shipbuilding. Mr. Wilson has shown a complete inability to grasp the great
big questions upon which the prosperity of the nation rests. Think of building a $425,000,000 canal and
fixing a charge for our own boats.

"Mr. Bryan, the Chautauqua star,
has shown his inability to cope with
the questions of international law.
The administration had to muzzle
him to keep him from plunging the
country into war.

"One of the greatest needs of the
hour is an adequate merchant marine. During the Harrison administration a ship subsidy bill was passed in the form of a postal subsidy.
This money is being used to maintain 100 boats on the Atlantic. We should amend this measure now to return
the money diverted to floating the present ships.

"We must also provide for an adequate army and navy. When the fleet was sent around the world other nations realized how weak it was.
Had war been declared at that time
our poor navy never would have gotten home.

"Something must be done to check
this modern movement to government ownership. There is no more reason for the government operating
public utilities than there is for the owning and operating of the steel
mills or mines."

Mr. Watson was the central figure
of a large gathering of Republicans
at the Hamilton Club at noon. The dispatch says. He was roundly cheered as he scored the administration and ridiculed what he termed President Wilson's "cheap play to
the Progressives" in ignoring the Republicans on the proposed trade
commission.

Measure Introduced Today Would Make it Difficult For Couples
to Evade the Law.

HEAVY PENALTY IS IMPOSED

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—In a bill
aimed at immoral practices, Representative Sullivan T. Waite of Marion, a Republican, would make it
more difficult for couples to evade
the law. The bill was introduced to-
day. It would prohibit those not legally man and wife from registering
thus in any hotel or rooming house.
The penalty provided is a fine for
each party of not less than $10 nor
more than $50 and imprisonment in
the county jail for a period not to exceed thirty days.

City and police courts have seldom returned convictions on adultery charges in cases where couples
have registered as man and wife.
As the law now is, the defendants
must have been seen together in the room. The penalty on conviction for
adultery is a fine not to exceed $500
or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both.

Air Because Steel Industry
Has Opened Up

Working on Orders From Europe
Crowds Disappear.

(By United Press.)

Pittsburgh, Feb. 2.—"Hard times" talk is rapidly being purged from the atmosphere of the Pittsburgh district. The European war has proven the incentive to increased industry and plants that were running on only part time and others that were not even doing that are operating today at full blast.

Steel is the commodity to which newborn boom owes its being and promises.

Secrecy essentially surrounds most of the operations of the plants big and little, in this vicinity. But that the plants are running there can be no doubt. Nor that men are back at work. Two months ago there was not a bulletin board before any newspaper majority at which crowds could not be found, night and day. They were steel workers, the majority of them, and war and hard times were the two topics of discussion. Today a half dozen or a dozen is the usual extent of the gatherings.

That is, until night. Then there are larger crowds. They are dressed better, smoke better tobacco, chew "tobies" (stogies) instead of black plug and wear bright expressions where gloom was implanted before.

All of the big plants are operating on full time or nearly on full time. At Newcastle, Sharon, Tarentum, Vandergrift, McKeesport, Swissvale and other big steel towns in the Pittsburgh district the mills are working full time with a long and steady run assured. Down the river at Morgantown, Parkersburg, Martin's Ferry, Moundsville, River-side and other West Virginia and Ohio cities the boom is on. The bulletin-board crowds have diminished—but more papers are being sold and more of the things advertised in the newspapers, too.
